COUNCIL TOLD SAANICH WILL HAVE DEFICIT

Revenue Expected to Be $5,000 Below Ordinary Expenses, Accounts Show

Despite large added expenses Saanich will end 1930 with a deficit of little more than $5,000 and the amount paid out for relief work, the Saanich Council was advised yesterday evening, when presented with a financial statement covering municipal income and expenses during the ten months ending October 31.

The municipality had collected 90.34 per cent. of the tax levy for the year, the ratepayers having contributed $185,184.89 of the levy of $204,985. In addition $37,254 was received from land sales and tax arrears. The net cash received from taxes and land sales was $220,171.

Receipts from sources other than taxation showed a substantial sum to be made up by the close of the year, the income for the ten months being $56,636, while the estimate for the year was $91,215. Large sums are yet to be received from the Provincial Government for liquor profits and permit mutual taxes, these items accounting for over $23,000 of the difference between receipts and the estimates.

Operating expenses for the year had been estimated at $176,134, and of this amount $158,854 had been spent by October 31.

The school board was allotted $100,820 from taxation and still had a credit available of $12,608 for the balance of the year.

Donations and charities had cost Saanich $6,420 to the end of October, and public health services had cost $11,877.

Councillor Hagan commented, "this is the first year in the seven years I have served that I have seen the council faced with a deficit."

GOVERNMENT MAY BECOME CZAR BREWER

Plan Under Consideration to Take Over Every Brewery in Province

Right of Province to Manufacture Beer Is Questioned; Vote Is Wanted

Considerable discussion on the powers of the Government under the Liquor Control Act and pointed criticism of what would provide another wide avenue for the patronage policy which has been under fire for two and a half years has been voiced with the announcement that in attempting to solve the beer problem the Government may establish its own brewery in British Columbia.

The information that out of the discussions of the beer purchasing policy of the Liquor Control Board, which was vigorously attacked by Conservatives as a brewers' monopoly when the Liberal Government was in power but has not yet been changed, a decision may be reached for the Government to establish a brewery business was gathered from sources friendly to the Government. It is claimed that it is more than a threat and serious consideration has been given to the proposal. The cabinet, however, is understood to be divided on the subject and brewers are reported to be bringing all the pressure possible to block the proposal.

POWER DISPUTED
The power of the Government to turn brewer is keenly disputed. While the right under the act to control the sale and manufacture of beer is conceded power to control the manufacture is not generally accepted as power to manufacture and it is claimed in some quarters that a vote would be given to the brewers to take over the Government could launch itself on the brewery sea as proposed by some of its members.

KING TALKS WITH BENNETT AT PALACE

By George Hambleton, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent
London, Nov. 28.—King George received Premier R. B. Bennett at Buckingham Palace to-day. Subsequently the King granted an interview to Hon. Vincent Massey, former Canadian Minister to the United States.

Premier Bennett will return to Canada in the coming week. The line Duchess of Atholl, sailing December 4, is the steamer tentatively considered, but the actual sailing date will depend on the completion of some outstanding business.

choose between the winning samples of these two classes to determine the wheat king.

Last year Joseph H. B. Smith of Wolf Creek, Alta., showed the best hard red spring wheat, with a sample of the Revard type that weighed 65.4 pounds to the bushel. That sample won for him the title of wheat king over the sample of hard red winter shown by C. Edson Smith of Corvallis, Montana, who had won the wheat championship the previous year.

Western Canada is this year heavily represented in the hard red spring classification, as Montana is in the hard red winter and the two areas are expected to renew their contest to determine which grows the choicest wheat.

FIELD PEAS
In the field pea competition, Canadian representation is rather heavy. At the 1929 show the Canadian entries were headed by the "Gibson" of P. U. Chubine of Wembley, Alta., and William Darnbrough, Sask., winning the first prize.

WHERE MARTIAL LAW NOW PREVENTS STREET RIOTS

Havana for a week has been under the control of troops, constitutional guarantees having been lifted by President Machado after a series of political riots. In the above picture, taken shortly before the President's decree was issued, police are seen gaining the upper hand after an outbreak. The President may extend martial law to the other parts of Cuba, Congress having given him authority to suspend civil government throughout the island if he considers it necessary.

J. I. McFarland Accepts Post With Wheat Pool Because of National Needs

Winnipeg, Nov. 28.—John I. McFarland, prominent grain man of Calgary, has been appointed general manager of the Canadian Co-operative Wheat Producers Limited, it was announced here to-day by A. J. MacPhail, president of the Canadian Wheat Pool.

"We have been seeking a general manager for our central selling board for over a year, since J. Ramsay resigned the position to become chairman of the board of grain commission," Mr. MacPhail stated.

"On more than one occasion Mr. McFarland has been approached to accept the general management of the central selling agency, but on each occasion he declined the offer. He has now recognized the gravity of the situation, however, and has accepted the appointment offered him by unanimous vote of the central board."

In a statement confirming his appointment as head of the central selling agency, Mr. McFarland stated he already had assumed his duties. He had accepted the position, he said, only from a sense of public responsibility in what he considered a national emergency, and would accept no salary for his services in disposing of the wheat now held by the pool.

In stating his desire to work in accord with the grain and milling trades on both sides of the Atlantic, Mr. McFarland declared there would be no radical change in policy until he had time to study the situation.

WINNIPEG PEOPLE CHOOSING MAYOR

Winnipeg, Nov. 28.—Mayor Ralph H. Webb to-day sought election for his fifth term as Winnipeg's chief magistrate. He was opposed by a Laborite, Marcus Hyman, who unsuccessfully contested the majority a year ago.

With a full slate of nine aldermen to elect, voters of the municipality went to the polls faced with an entry of twenty-five, including three communists and five Labor nominees. The Communist band included W. N. Koliashuk, elected a year ago and forcibly ejected from council gatherings more than once during stormy sessions.

HOUSE PAINTER THREATENS PEACE OF ALL EUROPE

As the would-be "Mussolini of Germany," the figure of Adolf Hitler is hovering large on the political horizon of the Ex-Kaiser's former realm. Hitler says he is "Out to Settle With the Criminals" who signed the Treaty of Versailles, and that is why the extent of his command over his country vitally interests all the other western nations.

Lord Rothermere, who publishes The Daily Mail in London, however, believes Hitler is a constructive force and Rothermere thinks some other countries should embrace a little Hitlerism.

The full story of the rise of this remarkable German political leader will be told in an illustrated feature article in the Saturday Magazine Section of The Victoria Times to-morrow. Accompanying the article will be the article from Lord Rothermere giving his ideas on Hitlerism.

AUTO TRAGEDY REQUEST AGAIN IS ADJOURNED

Evidence of Two Women in Car Wrecked on Sooke Highway to Be Sought

Witnesses Describe Scene of Crash When Two Met Death

The death which overtook Mrs. Elizabeth Leylander and William Lidstone of this city in an automobile accident on the Sooke Highway early on the morning of November 13 was described to a coroner's jury at Haywards' B.C. Funeral Chapel this morning as the inquest, under Coroner E. C. Hart proceeded.

Evidence of several witnesses was taken and the hearing was adjourned for two weeks to get the stories of the accident on the Sooke Highway. Lidstone, he said, had severe brain injuries. Both had several other very serious injuries including fractures, all of which were apparently caused by direct violence.

Dr. Moore said he did not think the injuries to the pair could have been made by an object coming from above. He was questioned at length on this point by Stuart Henderson, counsel for Frank Lidstone.

Other medical evidence was given by Dr. Herman Robertson who visited the crash scene soon after it happened. He was questioned at length on this point by Stuart Henderson, counsel for Frank Lidstone.

Robert Robinson, Colwood resident, outside whose farm the crash occurred, was questioned at length on this point by Stuart Henderson, counsel for Frank Lidstone.

Going to the roadway, witness saw the bodies of a man and a woman some distance from the wrecked car. They were both dead. He picked another woman up and she recovered consciousness, her first words being: "Oh, what a blinding light," he testified.

Mr. Robinson described it as a moonlight night, with no fog and a little frost, but the road surface was not slippery.

Beer Baron Faces Trial Because Son Ill in Chicago

Chicago, Nov. 28.—The plight of an injured son led Joe Salts, former South Side beer baron and "public enemy" to return to his home in Wisconsin and surrender yesterday on a vagrancy warrant.

"Polack Joe" came from Winter, Wis., 400 miles away, notified authorities, was booked and held for trial December 2. Then he went to the bedside of the son, Emil Salts, fourteen, who was struck by an automobile on Wednesday and suffered a fracture of the skull.

Judge John H. Lyle, who had issued the warrant for Salts' arrest, met the gangster at the Englewood Police Station. The vagrancy warrant was served and a $10,000 bond secured by property of a friend of Salts, valued at $5,000.

FINDS RAILWAY LIABLE FOR FIRE DAMAGE

Lawyers Continue Argument to Reach Settlement of $45,000 Claims

Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald in the Supreme Court this afternoon rendered an interim judgment in the action of the Women's Institute and other residents of Shawinigan Lake Station against the E. & N. Railway Company to recover damages as a result of the fire which last spring wiped out the whole station complex.

The judge found the company liable for the damage because of negligence in starting the fire on the right-of-way under dry climatic conditions at the time.

Lawyers are continuing the argument this afternoon to reach a settlement as to the extent of the costs. The residents in their suits are asking more than $45,000.

Final witnesses put on the stand were Norman Gundry Alexander, Raymond Victor Dougan, John Forsythe, John Thomas Muirhead, Arthur H. Maynard, Claude A. Irons, John H. Cameron and George W. Cornwall.

WOMAN AND TWO CHILDREN FIRE VICTIMS

Man Painfully Burned When Home in Algonquin Park, Ont., Destroyed

Pot of Tar Boils Over on Stove and Woman's Clothing Is Ignited

Canadian Press
Pembroke, Ont., Nov. 28.—Mrs. Joseph Patenaude, twenty-six, and her two young daughters met death in a fire which destroyed their little home on the shore of Canoe Lake, situated in Algonquin Park, 100 miles west of here. News of the tragedy, which occurred yesterday afternoon, reached Pembroke to-day.

The flames broke out when a pot of tar Mrs. Patenaude was heating on the kitchen stove for her husband to make repairs to the room of their home boiled over. Joseph Patenaude, the husband and father, suffered terrible burns in carrying his wife from the burning structure. He is expected to recover.

WORKING ON ROOF
Mrs. Patenaude was perched on the roof of his frame dwelling when the tar pot overran and quickly spread death and destruction. In a valiant attempt to save from injury her two-year and three-year-old daughters, who were playing on the floor nearby, Mrs. Patenaude picked the boiling mass up in her naked hands and threw the pot into the yard. Her dress was set afire in her futile effort to keep the flames from her children and home, and when her husband reached her side Mrs. Patenaude was a human torch.

In carrying his wife from the dwelling Patenaude sustained painful burns on the face and hands. Patenaude attempted to re-enter to bring out the children, but the flames were too intense and the little tots were trapped in a horrible death.

Mrs. Patenaude was cared for by neighbors, but she succumbed to her burns before nightfall.

Three young sons were absent from home attending school.

Patenaude is an employee of the Canoe Lake Lumber Company.

MUCH WORK FOR EXPLORERS IN ANTARCTIC, SAYS BYRD

Canadian Press
New York, Nov. 28.—Antarctica, the South Pole's bleak and barren base, remains unconquered and a challenge to man, Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd says in "Little America," the record of his expedition to the bottom of the world.

Byrd, commander of the expedition, says in the volume, which was published to-day on the first anniversary of his former trip, the story of his expedition to the North Pole having been over the world.

"At best," writes the commander of the band of eighty men who lived for months on the ice of Little America, "we simply tore away a bit more of the veil which conceals its secrets. In its larger aspects it remains, and probably will remain for many years to come, one of the great untold tasks of the world."

Miami, Fla., Nov. 28.—Four airplanes left here to-day to search for the plane of Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller, Australian woman flier, who was several hours overdue on an attempted flight from Havana to Miami.

Mrs. Keith-Miller when she left Havana expected to reach Miami about 11 a.m. She had not appeared early this afternoon.

Mrs. Keith-Miller's plane carried no radio and strong winds were reported on the route by Pan-American Airways. Mrs. Keith-Miller reached Havana Sunday after three hops from Pittsburgh. She started back for Pittsburgh to-day.

Mrs. Keith-Miller recently gained fame by setting a trans-United States plane speed record for women.

NO TRACE FOUND
Miami, Fla., Nov. 28.—A Pan-American Airways plane returned here late this afternoon from a three-hour cruise between Miami and Key West with the report no trace had been seen of Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller, Australian flier, who left Havana to-day on a flight to Florida.

Havana, Nov. 28.—Two planes, one of them an amphibian, left Havana this afternoon for Miami in search of Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller, Australian air woman, missing on a flight between Cuba and Florida.

In London Canadian Premier Declines to Comment on Thomas's Speech

London News Says Thomas Comfortably Within Facts Regarding Preference Offer

By Thomas T. Champion, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent
London, Nov. 28.—More than one newspaperman in London to-day was fruitlessly endeavoring to draw from Premier R. B. Bennett some comment on the remarks of Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, Secretary for the Dominions in the MacDonald Government, made during yesterday's debate in the House of Commons on the Imperial Conference.

Queried about the minister's use of the word "humbbug," Premier Bennett gently brushed his questioners aside. "I have not seen it," he replied with a smile. And that was all he would say for the present, at any rate, in public.

Even the papers not generally favorable to Mr. Thomas admit he soon reversed such an incantation word, which in a hasty glance at the record would leave the impression it was his description of the Canadian Premier's preference offer. Mr. Thomas hastened to explain the "humbbug" as a picture of the British opposition to the Government's reception of it.

URGE COLEMAN TO ORDER USE OF COAL FUEL

Premier Tolmie Confers With Railway Expert on Spark Arrester Tests

Island Mines May Close If New Market Not Provided

Possibility of restoration of coal as the locomotive fuel of Vancouver Island railways was advanced another step at a conference at the Parliament Buildings between D. C. Coleman, president of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway and Premier Tolmie.

The invitation to Mr. Coleman to meet the Premier was extended as a result of divergencies in opinion on the efficiency of the Brown-Oxley spark arrester for locomotives, which were presented to the British Columbia Coal Commission Wednesday.

The conference was attended by Hon. W. A. McManis, Minister of Mines and J. M. Cameron, manager of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway. It is understood that Mr. Coleman was assured that if the railway would resume use of coal on the island, the Government was prepared to support the continuance of the limited fire patrol of the railway which has been practiced since the locomotives were converted to use of oil fuel.

An important point brought out yesterday was the severity of the tests imposed upon the spark arrester apparatus, emission of cinders having been the result of draft conditions which, but for the spark arrester apparatus, would have scattered the entire contents of the firebox over the landscape. Such over-loading of locomotives would not be allowed in normal operation, Mr. Coleman was reminded.

During the discussion it was mentioned that Lieut.-Col. C. W. Villiers, of the Canadian Collieries, had forecast to the Coal Commission that unless a substantial increase in markets was attained, the entire coal mining industry of Vancouver Island would be irreplaceable, as the miners would move away.

Mr. Coleman assured Premier Tolmie that he would do everything possible to aid the coal industry. He pointed out that the question of fire hazard was of extreme importance, and that easing of Provincial and Federal regulations would not relieve the railway company from legal liability for damage to property.

In addition to studying the questions presented by the Government regarding operation of coal burning locomotives on the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway, Mr. Coleman stated, as vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, that attention was being devoted to other means of developing the use of coal throughout British Columbia.

BENNETT IS SILENT ON THAT "HUMBURG" SHOT

The London Daily News says it brought an inevitable rebuke from the speaker, but adds: "If Mr. Thomas meant, as apparently he did, that there was nothing in the Canadian offer from the viewpoint of the British worker, he was comfortably within the facts. A Canadian paper has itself described the proposal as being a horse bargain—and while it may be expressed more politely, the fact will remain."

IN PICKWICKIAN SENSE

The Manchester Guardian, recently accused of issuing a garbled report of a private gathering of the Empire Parliamentary Association, to-day deals with Mr. Thomas's "humburg" phrase by reproducing a passage from the Pickwick Papers. In this a speaker said: "The honorable gentleman is a humbug." After "immense confusion and loud cries of 'chair' and 'order,'" the speaker said he had used the word in its Pickwickian sense, and he was bound to acknowledge that personally, entertained the highest regard and esteem for the honorable gentleman.

The Guardian goes on: "We are sure Mr. Thomas's sentiments toward Premier Bennett are akin to these, and we are sure Canadian papers as well as The Guardian are aware of the difficulty of accepting Premier Bennett's statement in a 'common sense.'"

PROVED HIS CASE

The Financial News declares the most effective proposals for extension of Empire trade would be to reduce the barriers now hindering goods from one part of the Empire from admission to another part. Mr. Thomas, says The News, had no difficulty in showing the charge against the MacDonald Government, of failing to consider the Dominion proposals, was unwarranted.

COAL ISSUE REAR BRISIS IN BRITAIN

Owners and Miners Disagree Over Wage Cut With Reduction of Hours

London, Nov. 28.—A serious situation for the coal mining industry and Great Britain as a whole was created to-day when the Miners' Conference rejected by a large majority the "spread over" principle which would permit the mine owners to run their properties on a schedule of ninety hours a fortnight.

The spreadover schedule would replace the rigid seven and one-half hour day which becomes effective December 1. It was proposed by owners in Wales, Cumberland, Bristol, Leicestershire and North Staffordshire.

STRIKE NOTICE

The conference also recommended all other districts should consider giving notice for a national strike in the event of a stoppage of work in any one district.

The conferees will meet again next Thursday, but meantime the new Coal Mines Act will become effective on Monday and a grave crisis is feared unless the intricate negotiations, between the unions and owners in many districts come to an unexpectedly satisfactory conclusion.

BOARD'S SUGGESTION

London, Nov. 28.—The National Coal Mines Board to-day suggested owners and miners in the South Wales and Scottish fields renew negotiations, the object of arranging some temporary agreement by which a threatened strike might be averted.

In its interim report issued this afternoon the coal mines board asserted a strike in the important South Wales area would be "fraught with the most serious consequences" to both miners and owners.

It is of vital importance to the prosperity of the industry that any stoppage of work be avoided, the board said.

Meantime, the board adjourned a hearing of the miners' claims and recommended that under the temporary agreement it suggest the present wage scale be continued. If the dispute cannot be settled between owners and miners, the wage rate should be referred back to the board for consideration of the temporary agreement, it was suggested.

These recommendations were given to representatives of South Wales mine owners now in London, and it was stated that a joint conference of miners and owners would be held to-night.

Long litigation through the Courts of B.C. to the Supreme Court of Canada is threatened if the Government brewery enterprise is embarked upon without a vote being taken to secure more power for the Government than the private breweries.

In some quarters it is believed that the proposal now under consideration would not be confined to the operation of a brewery by the Government, but that the Government to clear the field for its own product instead of running one brewery in competition with the others now operating, would take over all the breweries. This would mean the expenditure of an enormous sum in the purchase of all the expensive plants now operating.

Instead of another great political machine for the distribution of patronage which leaders in the Conservative ranks have now come to frankly claim as a right of the Government in power, is also seen behind the proposal. Even with one brewery an appreciable number of party workers could be taken care of, and the thousands of applications to the reorganized Liquor Board since it took office show the great march of political jobseekers has never ceased since the Conservative Government took office.

Should the Government go to the extent of taking over all plants it would operate ten in the province and take over an investment set at $6,315,943. The fixed capital of the Columbia breweries is listed as $4,014,094, comprising land, buildings, machinery and tools while the balance is made up of working capital, materials, hand and stock. If the Government operated with similar staffs to those now employed it would have control of payroll running into over a half million dollars yearly and be able to provide jobs for 250 of those now clamoring to the party to be taken care of.

"MINISTER OF BREWERIES"

Besides establishing another method of taking care of party supporters the taking over of the breweries would also provide an opportunity for another addition to the record-breaking Conservative Cabinet, one politician said in discussing the subject to-day. The portfolio of "Minister of Breweries" could be created. The person holding the important position of brewmaster would be a logical man for that Cabinet rank, he remarked.

WORD AWAITED FROM THE MEN HUNTING BURKE

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Nov. 28.—No definite word of the safety of the eight men who are lost in Northern British Columbia has come from the north, although the search is progressing.

Opinion is general that Pilot E. J. A. Burke, Emil Kading, mechanic, and Bob Marten, prospector, are safe and on their way out to civilization from the Indian encampments to seek information regarding the missing men.

They planned to land at a small lake about fifteen miles away from the Burke plane and push in over the snow. Watson thinks Burke may have left a note in the cabin of his plane telling of the men's whereabouts.

CURLED PLANE

When Watson and Walsh sighted the plane on Monday they were unable to land beside it due to ice hummocks on the Liard River. However, they went low and circled round it, but could find no sign of life.

The Burke party has been missing since October 11.

Having made a careful reconnaissance of the coast between Prince Rupert and Butedale in the hope of discovering some clue to the fate of Pilot Renahan and his two companions, missing since October 28, Flight Lieut. Phinney and Flying Officer Dunlop returned to Prince Rupert yesterday evening without any result.

No further word has come from the Burke party since Pilot R. L. Van der Byl and Mechanic T. H. Cressy, formerly of Victoria B.C., are rumored. Indians and dog teams are on their way in to Thudade Lake, where they were left, to bring them out.

He was constrained to make the matter public because a client of his did not wish to see the law against lotteries openly defied and held in contempt and had requested him to bring an action.

"My client does not want the money, and I do not wish either him or myself to be in the position of an informer," he said, "but I have advised him these collective actions do not have a legitimate suit as intended by the code."

"My suggestion is that as private individuals are reluctant to become informers for personal gain, the authorities should nominate somebody to institute a test case and obtain a declaration from the courts as to whether the law applies to lotteries and if so whether it is to be disregarded with impunity."

POSSIBILITY OF REPEAL

Such a proceeding would lay the foundation for repeal of the section of the Criminal Code at the next session of parliament if public opinion was opposed to the law, he pointed out.

Mr. Pelton says the view of his client is that so long as lotteries are illegal the law should be enforced the same as any other law.

AUTO TRAGEDY INQUEST AGAIN IS ADJOURNED

There were skidmarks on the road thirty-five paces from the car along the road, nearer to the city. An electric transformer was lying at the foot of a pole which the car had apparently hit.

Douglas Kenway corroborated Mr. Robinson's testimony.

Side William, telephone operator at Belmont, half a mile from the scene of the crash, said she heard a car, travelling past, on the telephone station at 2:10 o'clock. A few seconds later she heard the crash and afterwards through the call for help to Victoria.

Constables H. Hughes and A. Carmichael of the Provincial Police, who arrived shortly after the ambulance had taken injured persons to the city, gave details of the scene, explaining a plan which was shown to the jury.

Paris Newspaper Urges France To Break With Soviet

Paris, Nov. 28.—Le Matin, influential Paris newspaper, to-day demanded the French Government break off diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia in answer to accusations at the trial of eight Russian engineers at Moscow that this Government had plotted armed intervention to destroy the Moscow regime.

The paper stated the Government at Moscow had indicated the communist Government's desire to force a French break and added: "Let Moscow have the courage to recall its own ambassador from Paris before an indignant France finds it necessary to dismiss him."

B.N.A. DEBATE AT EARLY DATE

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—When Premier R. B. Bennett returns to Canada he will bring with him a copy of a bill providing for amendments to the British North America Act in accordance with conclusions reached at the recent Imperial Conference. Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Minister of Justice, explained to-day. This bill will form the basis of a resolution to be presented in Parliament at the next session.

Before it is presented, the provinces of Canada will be consulted in order that there may be general understanding of the proposed changes and full agreement thereon. Similar documents to the one which the Prime Minister will bring are being given to the other Empire Premiers who were in attendance at the conference.

Byrd's reply to those who say his party lacked hardships is "rubbish."

"No Antarctic journey," he declares, "whether by air or by surface, is easy."

Part of his story, in the form of a diary, shows a busy man literally burning midnight oil in the writing of his journal. Halibutheads escaped from crevasses and ice packs, from blinding glazes and from crashing on the very flight to the pole itself.

"It is an effort to get there that counts," he says.

"It was an awesome thing, creeping (so it seemed) through the narrow pass, with the walls of Nansen and Fisher (peaks) on either side, higher than the level of the wings, watching the nose of the ship bob up and down across the face of that lone chunk of rock. . . . Once, we entered it there would be no retreat. It offered no room to turn."

But most exciting was his discovery of the vast area to which he gave the name Marie Byrd Land.

"For, here was the ice age in its chill flooded tide. Here was a continent throttled and overwhelmed. . . . Here was the lifeless water born of one of the greatest periods of refrigeration the earth has ever known. Seeing it, one could scarcely believe the Antarctic was once in a warm and fertile climate, with its own plants and trees of respectable size."

"Here, too, in this glacial flood is a counterpart of the immense ebb and flows of ice over the earth which profoundly affected mankind."

BRITISH RAIL DIRECTORS' FEES ARE REDUCED

London, Nov. 28.—British railway companies which have asked employees to accept a substantial reduction in pay have begun to slash salaries of their own directors.

The London, Midland and Scottish line announced to-day its directors' fees would be cut twenty-five per cent to effect a saving of $50,000 a year.

Meanwhile the railway unions were about ready to submit their answers to the wage cut proposals. They had made no official announcement, but it was authoritatively stated the answer constituted an emphatic rejection of the employers' proposal.

PRAIRIE BOY DIES OF BURNS

Moose Jaw, Sask., Nov. 28.—When a dish of gasoline sitting on a table beside a gasoline lamp was inadvertently tipped over, a young boy, thirteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Nosen of Mitchellton, was so badly burned that he died yesterday.

When the gasoline in the dish took fire the boy picked it up and rushed to the door to throw it out, but it spilled over his head and he was badly burned.

The fire in the kitchen of the house was extinguished by neighbors.

INCREASING INCOME TAX

Sydney, Aus., Nov. 28.—An increase in the tax on wages in order to benefit the unemployed in the state of New South Wales, was approved by the Labor Party caucus to-day on the recommendation of Premier J. T. Lang. This increase will be one shilling in the pound—roughly five per cent—on wages and earnings.

SURELY NOT!

THE GOVERNMENT IS REPORTED TO be considering the advisability of running a brewery on its own account as a means of controlling the price and quality of beer. This report is so fantastic as to be scarcely credible, but it comes from newspapers friendly to the government, it has not been denied, and therefore it must be accepted as having some foundation.

The people of British Columbia certainly would object to its government becoming a brewery operator for them on general principles, apart altogether from the question of practicability. The government is too near the business as it is, especially since it transferred the Liquor Board from control by the Legislature to control by itself. If it entered the brewing business it would find itself up to the neck in the mess which always follows a mixture of booze and politics, and in which even now it is getting itself badly mired.

If the government could not control the brewing interests of this province by any other means than by becoming actually one of those interests, it would be indeed completely bankrupt in ordinary horse sense, not to speak of ordinary statesmanship. Happily, before so wild a scheme could be carried out it would have to meet the approval of the public through a referendum, but it is bad enough even for the government to be considering the subject.

If the government is in earnest in the expression of its desire to have better and cheaper beer sold in this province, all it needs to do is to provide sufficient competition by private interests to bring this about. This ought to be easy enough, since the authorities here and at Ottawa have before them applications from responsible interests for permission to erect breweries on the coast. It ought to be possible for such conditions to be attached to new licenses as would prevent any fresh combination being established. In any event the government has enough to be responsible for in the administration of provincial affairs without adding a brewery to the list.

MR. GORDON AND IMMIGRATION

IN THIS COLUMN A FEW DAYS AGO we drew attention to a Canadian Club speech in Vancouver in which Hon. W. A. Gordon, Minister of Immigration and Colonization in the Dominion government, criticized the late Liberal regime for bringing too many people to Canada within the sixteen months preceding last July 31, describing it as a period when thoughtful people must have known that a depression was coming.

Apart from the fact that a very large number of the total admitted to the Dominion during this period came without special encouragement or assistance, a reference to Hansard discloses the criticism which Hon. R. J. Manion, then in opposition and now Minister of Railways and Canals, made in parliament against Hon. Robert Forke for not pursuing a much more active immigration policy. Here are Dr. Manion's words:

I submit we can take many more immigrants of all kinds. The Hon. Minister practically stated that we are a happy little family and should be content to remain as we are and not look for other people to come to our shores. . . . Perhaps one or two in the House may express satisfaction (with the government's policy) and some even seem to think we are getting too many immigrants. The Minister himself gave me that impression.

Of course the public has not forgotten General McRae's scheme for bringing in 300,000 new settlers into the Peace River country, the government advancing funds up to $300,000,000 for the purpose. At the same session, 1929, the General urged the government to adopt it. Obviously he spoke with the authority and support of his leader and colleagues, since he at that time was the national organizer of the Conservative party. It also is interesting to observe what Mr. Bennett said earlier in the session when he was speaking on the Address in reply to the Speech from the Throne. In the Speech the following passage occurred: "A flow of immigrants commensurate with Canadian requirements and selected strictly for their ability to promote the general prosperity of the country is being satisfactorily maintained." Of this Mr. Bennett said:

With these words the representative of the sovereign meets this Parliament. I will ask any hon. gentleman here if he will go to any business man or thoughtful Canadian in his constituency and read those words to him and say, "That is a fair reflection of Canadian public opinion." Is there any Canadian who regards this problem as being adequately dealt with by the present system? We have here one of the largest undeveloped areas in the world; we have a very pressing necessity for more people. There need be no misapprehension about that, notwithstanding what has been said from time to time to the contrary. It will be found that the increase of population in this country, brought about by bringing additional people in, will not only lessen unemployment for those who are now in it, but will increase all employment.—Hansard, pp. 21 and 22, Feb. 11, 1929.

Mr. Bennett went on to say that those who have studied the problem realize that instead of there being a diminution of opportunities for labor, the flow of new people into a country means the increasing of opportunities for those already there as well as providing work to those who may come. But his Minister of Immigration and Colonization now says that by bringing to Canada 250,000 new people in the sixteen months prior to July 31 of this year, the King government was pursuing a policy of "un-disciplined and uncontrolled immigration." Recognizing the present Prime Minister's utterance last year with Mr. Gordon's this year will take a bit of doing.

THE CHEERFUL SIDE

A NOTABLE FEATURE OF THE present process of economic adjustment is the conviction that it will be regarded, in future days, as a period of great importance in the laying of foundations—the beginning of many new lines of prosperity in Canada. This is the opinion of Mr. F. W. Collins, industrial agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, Montreal. Although this authority says this fact may not occur to the man who does not delve into fundamentals and who listens only to the flutter of gossip and rumor—which swings blithely from unreasoning buoyancy to deep pessimism and back again—the significance of present trends, apart from world conditions that Canada cannot control, is seen in a number of ways, "and one of the important indications is that of the multiplied inquiries from American and British manufacturing firms for factory sites in Canada."

Within the last year, we are told, these developments have been most marked, while the last few weeks have been especially lively in this regard and full of promise for the future—promise of more capital, more employment and more general prosperity in which agriculture and other lines of production will share. And one has only to glance back to the pre-depression year of 1920, consider the progress made since then, to realize how much fitter Canada now is to ride the rough spots and measure the astonishing progress made within the decade.

To begin with, Mr. Collins observes, it is worth recalling that in 1920 there were a large number of industrial plants idle throughout the country—war-time factories—and it was popularly thought that they would never again be used. Almost imperceptibly, however, consumption caught up with production, and before the people of Canada were aware of it these idle plants became busy because export trade was outstripping the increase of population and new industries were being constantly developed.

In 1928 the total value of materials produced was $3,769,850,364 compared with $2,576,037,029 in 1921, the first year of the previous depression. In 1929 the gross value of these products was in excess of $4,000,000,000, and that increase was accomplished in spite of declining price levels.

Another interesting development, essential to Canada's progress, is the gradual change of western Canada from an exclusively agricultural country to a part agricultural and a part industrial country. This trend cannot be otherwise than favorable to national development as a whole. With increasing population and a larger home market its industrial strength will grow, as has been well demonstrated in the last ten years.

If the government established and operated breweries on its own account, we suppose there would have to be a Department of Breweries in the public service with an Honorable Minister of Breweries at the head of it. And the patronage committee of the party association naturally would want to recommend faithful party workers for the jobs in both the department and the breweries themselves.

The death of Mr. Walter Payne, for fifty years a valued member of the staff of The Manitoba Free Press, will be regretted throughout the whole of Canadian newspaperdom. Mr. Payne was a very able newspaperman, whose zeal and ability played an important part in the progress of The Manitoba Free Press to its present high position among the daily newspapers of Canada. He was highly esteemed for his fine qualities of mind and heart by his colleagues in the newspaper world, especially by those with whom he had been in daily contact for many years, and to whom his passing will be a severe personal loss.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM
The Manitoba Free Press

Civil Service reform has definitely increased the efficiency of the government departments. It has ensured that most of those appointed to positions in the civil service are fitted for their work. It has removed the injustice of denying promotion to those who have earned it. And, in taking from members of Parliament to a large extent the distribution of patronage it has benefited them by relieving them of a very real nuisance. The establishment of the merit system under the Civil Service Commission has been a forward step, a distinct improvement on old conditions.

DIVORCEES RESUME RELATIONS
The Boston Transcript

It is hard to keep up with the changes in the etiquette of divorce. The present fashion with couples whom the courts have put asunder is to re-establish relations of cordial amity. "Jack and I are the best of friends" is now the divorcee's way of putting it, referring to her most recently discarded husband, nor is she averse to lunching with him or making up a table at cards with him, as in the never-to-be-forgotten ante-nuptial days.

Twenty-five Years Ago To-day

The Victoria Daily Times, November 28, 1905

Robert Samuel Findlay and Charles Grant, the two sealers imprisoned by Russians and whose adventures and hardships have been the subject of columns of newspaper print both in Canada and the United States, reached Victoria last evening, where the former's parents reside.

"The finest residential city on the American continent" is the glowing summation up of Victoria from the lips of a former Winnipegger, according to The Tribune of the Pacific Capital. Andrew Wright, who is now a resident here, has been preaching an eloquent sermon on this city to the people of the great Northwest, giving it the very best advertisement in a wide constituency.

The street re-naming by-law has been passed at last. The City Council yesterday evening stamped the measure with its final endorsement, and Alderman Hanna, who fathered it, is happy.

The Watson Stock Company gave a good performance of the ever favorite "East Lynne" at the Watson Theatre last evening.

Now that the local football league series is completed and the Victoria United team has undisputed possession of the championship, enthusiasts are beginning to look forward to the Vancouver team competition. This will mean another struggle against the Garrison who fought so hard for the honor of the city last year. The addition of other teams, which will be the Victoria West and Egmont.

Loose Ends

Science comes back to the old, old starting point—Hungarian tailors vindicate a great confession—and there is desolation on our road.

By H. B. W.

SOME OF the most eminent scientists of the world have lately been putting on record their final conclusions about life. Taken together, I think these confessions form one of the most remarkable and surprising documents of our time. Also they show a new spirit of childlike humility on the part of the best minds, which is as comforting as it is unexpected. I quote three of the gentlemen who have been making their final confessions of faith. Dr. Harlan T. Steeple, distinguished American astronomer: "Now that physical science has made impossible a medieval cosmology and has reduced space and time to a visionary framework, perhaps some future physical science shall yet evolve that shall disprove that Mind, after all, is the one persisting reality." Sir James Hopwood Jeans, astronomer and secretary of the Royal Society: "The universe begins to look like a great thought than like a great machine. Mind no longer appears as an accidental intruder into the realm of matter. We are beginning to suspect that we ought rather to hail it as the creator and governor of the realm of matter, not of course, the universal mind, but mind in which the atoms of which our individual minds have grown exist as thoughts." Dr. W. R. Whitney, director of research of the General Electric Company and one of the world's best authorities on electricity: "No scientific concept can stand still. As is in motion. The change of the law which we discover but cannot understand or explain—that alone is final."

THUS, AFTER 5,000 years of investigation, the best minds, so far as the most important aspects of life are concerned, have come back to the very crude ideas of science. The place where they started. They have found out a lot on the way, but so far as the central and overshadowing mystery is concerned they are no further ahead than at the beginning. Their final word adds nothing to, and is not nearly so clear as the final word of many ancient philosophers, who had the crude ideas of science. Nevertheless, the gain has been enormous. Science has come at last to a belief in immaterial things by material means, and while this is a negative and paradoxical method, it is the only one which this age understands or thoroughly believes. What I mean is that a man without scientific knowledge might proclaim these same truths until he was black in the face and few would pay any attention to him. Now that science has proclaimed them, they will be listened to as if they were a new dispensation, whereas they are as old as human history. All they lacked up to this time were scientific trappings.

THE TAILORS OF Hungary have lately performed a notable service to humanity. They have conferred together and they have compiled a list of humanity according to its readiness to pay its tailor's bills. This I take to be a pretty fair index to the honesty of the Hungarian public, but how far it applies to this country I leave it to you to decide. Well, then, a Hungarian tailor trusts actors above most people to pay their bills. After that he is willing to take a chance on an author or journalist, each of whom is a better bet than a banker (even if they have no money). The banker, however, is safer than the agent or "the light-hearted gigolo, who recognizes the impossibility of teaching dancing without a well-cut suit, but fails to recognize the necessity of paying for it." But most of all and above every trade, the tailor will trust the artisan and the university professor, but then, they would need less clothes than a gigolo or a banker, which professions are hard on clothes. I have no comment to make on these facts. I merely print them for the information of the public here, and with the faint hope that the Hungarian tailors' conclusions are gross libels on a noble profession—that journalists always pay their bills better than any other workers. I hope this may come to pass, but, frankly, I don't expect it will.

ONE HESITATES to say anything about the Government lest one be taken for a politician, and yet I feel someone ought to rush in where angels are not welcome, and say a few words on behalf of the trees along the Saanich Road, which can't say much for themselves. They are draining the Saanich Road now and otherwise proving it in a fashion which the municipality could not afford before the Government took it over. This is splendid and has caused much rejoicing among us who use the road every day. But we are not so happy when we see how the great trees which used to line the Saanich Road have been cut down and torn from the earth by the roots.

THIS DESOLATION, I suppose, is necessary in many places to make room for ditches, to widen curves and to remove all possible obstacles from the way of reckless drivers. There is a suspicion, however, among many good people out our way that a number of trees which stood well off the road, up on high banks away from it, have been sacrificed in this general streamlining. I am not an engineer enough to judge. I can only see that all the trees are gone in many places, and I am sure that the Government is making mistakes that have not lapsed in this case. It would be a tragedy, indeed, if in constituency of Saanich, represented by a Prime Minister who himself is a lover of trees, any full-grown tree are needlessly sacrificed. All one can hope is that as the excellent work of improving the road proceeds, no tree will be cut which could just as well remain, for it is the trees along the Saanich Road, and the trees only, which distinguish it from such places as the Pacific Highway running into Vancouver, where the endless fields of stumps on either side present such a melancholy approach to the city that it is surprising that any tourists ever reach the city at all. The Saanich Road is the chief approach to Victoria, and even if we have no better feelings ourselves, it should be preserved to give visitors the impression that we have.

CIVIL SERVICE SALARIES

To the Editor:—Certain of the general public possess that peculiarity of mentality that causes them, immediately upon unemployment and hard times appear, to rush into print with letters regarding the Civil Service and the supposedly splendidly paying positions which we, as civil servants, hold. A further and greater peculiarity is, however, that when times are good and prosperity is in the country no one ever rushes to the press with letters advocating that the salaries of civil servants be increased to take care of the increased cost of living and inflated prices which such prosperity always brings. One member of the public who can be placed in the first category is your correspondent Walter Foster, whose letter, which appeared in your issue of November 24, follows the usual characteristics of all other such letters that we have ever seen, in that it displays his total ignorance of the facts of the subject under discussion, as we shall endeavor to show in our subsequent remarks.

Your correspondent quoted some remarks made by a Mr. Bouchard, a senior Civil Service examiner, to the effect that $117,000,000 salaries are expended for salaries for 50,000 Canadian civil servants. Mr. Bouchard and Walter Foster may be correct in this, and in their statement that the average weekly salary in the Civil Service is $45.00. We, however, as Civil Servants and as an organization of such, prefer to take official figures as are issued from time to time by the Federal Bureau of Statistics. These figures show that on March 31, 1929, there were employed in the city of Ottawa 10,944 Civil Servants who were paid a total of $17,533,991 in salaries, or an average salary of $31.02 per week. There were 31,846 civil servants in other parts of the Dominion and these were paid $47,147,701, or an average weekly salary of $26.55. The total number of civil servants in the whole of the Dominion was 42,790, who received $64,681,692, or an average salary of $29.22 per week. With five per cent deducted in payment of superannuation, the average weekly salary is reduced to $29.47, $25.22 and $27.76 respectively.

Your correspondent argues for the lopping off the salary bill of the Civil Service of $29,000,000, or approximately 24.5 per cent of Mr. Bouchard's total salary list of 44.6 per cent of the total salary bill of the Bureau of Statistics. Whether or not the average Civil Servant could exist after such a lopping off had taken place in his salary, the meagre salary is most eloquently expressed in a return which was tabled in the House of Commons on April 24, 1929, and which shows that less than 3,744 male civil servants were paid less than $100 per month. In the face of such figures, uninformed persons like Walter Foster would argue to have further misery added to that we have throughout the whole of the country by cutting the salaries of those being paid $75 per month, from which is already deducted $3.75 for superannuation purposes, to $69.25 or $41.25, according to which ever set of figures he chooses to accept as authentic.

In connection with the Civil Service union, may we state that we have never in our history promised any member or prospective member that his or her dues would be repaid fourfold. We have used absolutely no coercion whatever. What members we have, have joined us voluntarily out of a realization that only by joining some aggressive organization can their interests, salaries or otherwise, be protected. Neither have trips been made to lighthouse keepers in any effort to have those classes join up with us, and what organizing trips have been made have been paid for exclusively by the civil servants themselves and not, as stated by your correspondent, the public.

In conclusion, may we say that as representing the largest single organization of civil servants in this country, we do not resent their criticism of the service either in fair weather or foul, by persons who understand about what they are talking, but we certainly do resent such letters as the one to which we are now replying, containing as this one undoubtedly did, such a mass of inaccuracies and coming from one who, we understand, was some time back expelled from a trades union.

H. BAKER,
National President,
Victoria, B.C., November 27.

FED UP

To the Editor:—I am getting properly fed up reading such trash as Walter Foster writes. He always puts me in mind of Balzac's Ass braying in the desert. Am a non-union man myself (not from inability to command the union scale of wage at my craft, but from choice). If Mr. Foster has a grievance against unionism why does he not get a soap-box and parade said troubles from some street corner? Everyone with common sense knows that unionism in this country has served a very useful purpose, and has been a benefit not only to the workers but to all business men as well. We got along nicely before this man forced himself before the public through the press, and I am positive after having discussed his letters with many, that his silence would be of far greater value to the non-unionist, than all his non-sensational ravings. One could not call them arguments.

TITLED WOMAN M.P. IN FIGHT

Lady Cynthia Mosley in Fracas at Indian Freedom Meeting

London, Nov. 28.—Lady Cynthia Mosley, wife of the millionaire Socialist, Sir Oswald Mosley, and daughter of the late Lord Curzon, was involved yesterday with other Members of Parliament in a stirring scene during which fist fights occurred at a meeting in support of Indian freedom.

An Indian in the audience attacked James Marley, M.P., who presided at the meeting organized by the Commonwealth of India League, and for a time a battle raged on the platform. Other fights broke out in various sections of the crowded hall and for a quarter of an hour there was a general uproar. Members of the audience usurped the chair and made speeches from the platform and in numerous parts of the hall. The disturbance quieted when a policeman threatened to clear the hall, but broke out again when a speaker referred to Mahatma Gandhi as the greatest figure of modern days, and someone in the audience shouted "swine."

Lady Cynthia tried to talk but was shouted down.

Old Portrait From Harewood Family Comes to States

New York, Nov. 28.—A Gainsborough portrait of Mrs. Edwin Lascelles, an ancestor of the Earl of Harewood, husband of Princess Mary of England, has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Jamison, of St. Louis.

The canvas, thirty by twenty-five inches, is a half length, full face portrait of an alert young woman, painted while Gainsborough was in his early thirties and belonging to his late Jewish period.

Sketch Club Tea.—The Sketch Club of the Island Arts and Crafts will hold their annual tea in the club rooms, Union Bank Building, on Tuesday from 3 to 5 o'clock, in honor of the hostesses who have entertained them during the summer sketching parties, and also for the purpose of exhibiting the work of the season. Members are all invited to attend and bring their sketches to be exhibited on Monday or at the latest Tuesday morning. There will be a musical programme.

YOUR BABY and MINE

By MRS. MARY E. LINDSEY

Mrs. Lindsey will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

HOME DOING IS A DANGEROUS BUSINESS

When there is illness about, it is human nature to want to do something about it. In this "doing" the mother is aided by everyone within hearing of the household. The readiness with which amateurs step in and diagnose and advise for sickness is almost alarming.

One has only to read my daily mail to understand how much erroneous information is passed around. The young mother is the particular target for cast quantities of advice and information about children. Almost all of this information is false, not because the donors aim to tell untruths or to pass on incorrect information, but because mothers are so glibly that anyone has only to make a statement, however absurd, in a convincing way and they swallow it whole.

THE AMATEUR DOCTOR
In the matter of doing for illnesses, the veriest tyro never hesitates for a moment. Stomach aches? "My dear, just give him a good dose of castor oil and he'll be well to-morrow." It always do that with my children. "If by morning the hapless victim of stomach pains is in the hospital with an acute attack of appendicitis, who blames the advisor? Certainly not the mother.

Colds? "Colds should be 'stuffed' out on some hot camphorated oil, cover his chest with flannel, give him a good physic, and let him sniff up some medicinal oil." Sometimes the aftermath of this forcible "stuffing up" is serious in the extreme. Sniffing up, when one's nasal passages are already full of bacteria, is quite as effective way as one could devise to force the bacteria into the middle ear and perhaps eventually into the mastoids. Does any one blame the advisor?

The more a person knows, the more hesitantly he makes definite statements about anything. I admit, but more intelligent to rigidly refuse to use medicines until it is certain exactly for what they are to be used.

HARMLESS PROCEDURE

The child who is ill is made no worse by being bathed, put to bed, kept in a room of even temperature, given quantities of water to drink and a very light diet until it can be decided whether there is a temporary ailment or a serious one. Twelve hours will tell that quite accurately, and meanwhile it is better to take no steps at all than to take wrong ones.

First aid for cuts, burns and bruises comes within the province of the mother. Incidentally we offer a leaflet on that subject which is handy to have in the bathroom. If you wish to secure it, enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request and mail it to the "Your Baby and Mine" department of this newspaper. The symptoms of so many illnesses are so similar in their beginnings, however, that it takes a most presumptuous person to decide, after a casual look at the child, what the cause of the symptoms, exactly what is wrong and what should be done about it.

AROUND THE TOWN with Mistress Pepys

28th. Busy all morning checking over my Christmas list. When in the shops, I do find myself bewildered, with so much that is beautiful about the season, and I have heard that I might give my purchases. In truth, I have before now found myself with two gifts for the same person!

Again to Upstairs for Mistress Castlemaine. She tells me that her husband admires Pegasus so much that he is fastidious about his gifts. He thinks it is a splendid car for the lady motorists because of its "quick acceleration, speed, effective four wheel brakes, ease in starting and shifting gears, turning and parking." But I like it just because it is, first, so beautiful to look at, so luxurious, with such rich appointments, and then, because it is so easy to handle.

Drive Pegasus swiftly to the Combtree. Want several little easy to send overseas gifts. Earlier did see some appealing novelties. Some gone but new ones arrive daily and some more clever feather flowers come in, so popular are they. These dainty homespun bookmarks, at 40 cents, with felt flower decorations will slip into an envelope. Buy a pound of delectable homespun candy, reasonable at 60 cents. Divinity Fudge, Creme de Menthe, Maple Creams and other flavors.

To Robertson's Ltd., always famous for their Spode collection, methinks now the finest in Canada. It comes in duty free, so that it is not much dearer than in England. Here I see that old favourite, the Pink Tower pattern, made from copper plates taken from scenes in the original Josiah Spode's own garden. Much interested to note that Josiah Spode was born just 100 years after my famous ancestor, the original Samuel Pepys. What art and what patterns!—the Jewell, the Daisy, Rosebud, Chintz, but I will tell you of others later.

Need some more cards to send abroad, so to Diggon's where surprised at wide range from 1 cent up. Boxes of a dozen cards—start at 45 cents. This box of twenty-one choice cards and a packet of seals and tags for $1.50 is in truth a bargain, nearly all parchment cards, decorated also within and lined envelopes. There be Canadian Art Series, Man's cards, Scotch, Golf, Relatives, Sacred Children's, Sweetheart's, Humorous, Perfumed, Hand Painted, Etched and . . .

Samuel Pepys' birthday, so to Winkler's Jewellery Shoppe, where they always have a very complete selection. Buy a box of cards in every form of colouring, frosted, embossed, with conventional design of peacock and flowers in gold and blue. Most of these come in ten pieces, clear amber, so to bed.

These little accessories, too, are captivating: Lovely little cut glass perfume bottles, reduced from $2.75 to $1.50, smelling salts with gay enamelled tops reduced from $2.50 to $1.50 and modern "Pill Mail" comb and mirror sets in silver decorated silk cases for 75 cents.

All this rush of Christmas shopping is very tiring and one must be careful if one is not to show these tell-tale lines, which makes one look fatigued and old. Have heard that facial massage is risky unless expertly done and must inspect the new aid to youth and beauty which the Murphy Electric Appliances are showing. The skin Patter, known as the personal beauty expert; it promotes healthful circulation, stimulates and exhilarates.

A new pastime has engaged my interest, at the Bull's Eye Shooting Gallery, just opened, a new pastime that is as old as the hills; Back in the old English days, it was practiced on the village green—Robin Hood and his merry men in Sherwood Forest and I do recall Aylward in the White Company. And in truth to-day, as then, archery doth call for all the sportsmanship and steady nerve and skill that one can train himself to possess. I do love the bow, as do most of our island breed, an heritage of our fathers.

"What of the bow, The bow was made in England, Of yew wood, of true wood, The wood of English bows And men who are free Love the old yew tree And the land where the yew tree grows."

Home in time for dinner and indeed it is a pleasure to go into the house and it is so pleasantly warm in every room. I cannot abide the shivers feeling one gets on going into cold rooms. Since we have had this Comox coal, which Kingham, Gillespie & Co. advised for our furnace, we have indeed enjoyed comfort, the like of which we knew not before.

Before leaving town, did call at the Marionette Library and did obtain "The Wood of English Bows" by Samuel "Swift" by Van Doren. Lost no time in reading mine and was so much pleased with it that did read it into the night, until Samuel coming in did urge me, for the sake of my health, to put it away until the morrow, so to bed.

LABOR-LIBERAL MAJORITY ON TEST VOTE IN BRITISH COMMONS IS SIXTY-FIVE

CONSERVATIVE PROGRAMME

Such was the essence of the Canadian Premier's proposal, which was the only proposal before the conference put in definite form. Mr. Snowden suggested the Conservatives would now appeal to the country on behalf of Empire unity, "to enable the Dominions to keep out our goods and to increase unemployment in this country."

The Conservative programme also said: "We ask you to tax yourselves for the benefit of the Dominions and we want the British people to pay the Dominions for raising tariffs which will keep out our goods."

The Chancellor charged the Tories with securing Empire unity "to place ourselves in economic fetters to the Dominions, as the only means by which the Imperial tie can be kept."

"That is not our way," commented Mr. Snowden, "but is the most sure way of disrupting the Empire." If the opposition should adopt a food tax policy under present circumstances, he said, they would qualify for entrance in the lunatic asylums.

Chicago Continues Sensational Play in National Hockey League

THE SPORTS MIRROR

100 Crack Golfers Will Compete in $25,000 Agua Caliente Open

What Will Be Effect of Oriental Tour on Don Moe's Game?

Rumors of Drastic Shake-up in Montreal Maroons

Mike Rodden, Hamilton Tigers' Mentor, Not Opposed to Forward Pass

EVERY pro or amateur golfer of note will have a chance to enter the second annual $25,000 Agua Caliente open golf tournament which will be held over the Mexican coast at January 13, 14, 15 and 16. A field of 100 players, ninety professionals and ten amateurs, will take part in the world's richest tournament, played with the field to be selected through a two-day qualifying round at Agua Caliente on December 23 and 24.

To date some forty-nine pros and two amateurs have automatically qualified for the tournament. These players are the first thirty-two to finish in the top U.S. open, the championship, the thirty-two qualifiers in the 1930 championship of the P.G.A. and all winners and runners-up in past British and U.S. open and P.G.A. tournaments. This list covers about fifty pros and two or three amateurs as many of the names are duplicated on the list. Also several of the automatic qualifiers will not be entered, leaving additional room in the field. As a matter of fact the leading qualifier, Bobby Jones, will not be among the competitors.

The list of automatic qualifiers includes practically all the outstanding golfers in America to-day. Among them is Gene Sarazen, New York, who won the $10,000 first money in the first tournament held last January, with a brilliant display of golf in the final round of the seventy-two-hole competition. Sarazen played in Victoria on Wednesday, partnered with Al Espinosa, Chicago, who is another of the automatic qualifiers. Other well-known golfers who have already qualified include: Walter Hagen, Tommy Macdonald, Smith, Horton Smith, Johnny Farrell, Dudley Olin and Mortie Dutra, Bill Mehlhorn, George Von Elm, Johnny Goodman, Denny Shute, Charles Lacy, Al Watrous and Joe Kirkwood.

Many are wondering if the extensive Oriental tour which Don Moe, famous Portland amateur golfer, has been on will affect his game in the same way that it did Walter Hagen's. Of course Don is coming up while Hagen is going down, but the latter has been putting touch on the confusing greens of the far eastern countries and Australia. When he returned he was likely to be anything but the ball strapper that put it into the cup. Perhaps Don is young and coming enough to turn all that confusing experience into a valuable asset, so that he will be a strong contender for a place on the next U.S. Walker Cup team.

Golfing luck is a peculiar thing, Charley Seaver, the young lad who got to the semi-finals in the last U.S. amateur where he was barely defeated by Gene Homans for the right to play Bobby Jones in the final, got anywhere at all shortly before in the California state tournament, where the play was much weaker, and lost his match in the north-south California team matches against an opponent who would hardly have gotten anywhere in the U.S. amateur. And John J. O'Connor, a pro golfer, who has been playing for fifteen years, but always shook his head when asked if he'd scored a hole in one. Luck turned his way suddenly, with the result that he made three holes in one in two weeks.

There are rumors in Montreal of a shake-up in the Maroons. The Forcett team opened the N.H.L. season with four straight defeats and although the club won its next two games the officials are not satisfied. The experts are claiming the club needs a coach to teach the forwards how to play. This seems strange in view of the fact that Nels Stewart, Babe Siebert and Hooley Smith, the first-string forwards of the Maroons, form the same trio that carried the Montrealers' colors so successfully in previous campaigns. It begins to look as if the club delved too deeply into the amateur market, and also made a mistake when they let "Red" Dutton go. Lionel Conacher, who replaced Dutton on the Maroon's defence, has never shown that he is in the same class with the Western Canada contractor when the latter is at his best. At that, the Maroons will be right up near the top at the finish of the season. There are too many good players on that team to keep them down for any considerable length of time.

Mike Rodden, crafty coach of the Hamilton Tigers, who has long been suspected of opposing the forward pass, has been finally cornered on the subject and according to a statement in a Toronto newspaper, declares that he is not opposed to the forward pass provided the interference zone is extended. He wants ten-yard interference, otherwise he will remain opposed to the introduction of the forward pass.

Tigers, carried a lot of weight in football circles, coming out for the pass if the rule commissioners increase the interference zone, the way should be clear for definite action on this important matter.

BRITISH GOLFERS AND FANS GLAD JONES HAS QUIT

Genuine Cause of Thanksgiving Declares Prince of Wales in London Address

Also Pays Tribute to Flight of Lindbergh at Banquet of American Society

London, Nov. 28.—Two events of the last six years stand out in the memory of the Prince of Wales, who was the guest of honor at the annual Thanksgiving dinner of the American Society at the Savoy Hotel yesterday evening.

These two, he told the U.S. citizens were the flight of Colonel Lindbergh to Paris and "the appearance of Bobby Jones on the British golf horizon."

"I can say it is a genuine cause of thanksgiving to British golfers and golf followers," the Prince declared, "that Bobby has retired from competition."

The Prince remarked all persons strove toward perfection whether in science, industry, agriculture, art or sport, and that the Englishman in an effort to attain perfection admired any individual success on the other side of the ocean.

He predicted that the four great golf trophies never again would be won by one man in a single year.

Ambassador Davies also spoke.

CHURCH TEAM AND LANGFORD PLAY TO DRAW

Christ Church Players Rally to Gain Even Break in Third Division Badminton

Both Teams Have Chances to Win; Church Show Strength in Men's Doubles

A rally in the closing matches gave the Christ Church squad a draw with Langford in a Third Division badminton fixture played at Langford Lakeside yesterday evening. The teams both gain a point, but failed to gain much ground on the league-leading J.B.A.A. squad, as yet undefeated.

Both teams had a good chance to win. Christ Church showed impressive strength in the men's doubles, which they won with only one defeat in four starts. Langford women, however, came to a halt and knocked over the church women with three out of four wins, to tie up the score.

Langford's first stringers won three of their first four mixed doubles matches to give their side a temporary lead only to have the Church players rally to win four of the last five matches on the programme to halve the match.

The results follow with the Langford players being named first:

MEN'S DOUBLES
Le Quense and Wilkinson lost to Willoughby and Cox, 15-11.

Le Quense and Wilkinson beat Wallace and G. White, 15-1.

A. N. Brown and C. Brown lost to Wallace and G. White, 15-9.

A. N. Brown and C. Brown lost to Willoughby and Cox, 15-11.

WOMEN'S DOUBLES
Mrs. Le Quense and Miss Jones lost to Miss Tindall and Mrs. Cox, 15-4.

Mrs. Le Quense and Miss Jones beat Mrs. Tindall and Mrs. Cox, 15-4.

Yesterday evening both Ottawa and Montreal Canadiens fell before teams in the United States section. The Senators went down to defeat, 2 to 1, in a close, hard fought game at Boston, while the Flying Frenchmen lost to Detroit, 3 to 1.

Chicago Black Hawks, the sensation of the league to date, continued their undefeated record in the third game of the schedule, by decisively beating the New York Rangers, 4 to 0.

It was only a stirring last period rally which enabled Boston to down Ottawa, who played a splendid game throughout. Eric Pettinger, relief forward, put the Canadian team in the lead half way through the middle frameon Harold Starr's pass, but Eddie Shore and Dit Clapper combined to knot the count in the first minute of the third session. Harry Oliver scored the winning goal for the Bruins seven minutes later on, Perk Galbraith's assist.

DETROIT CONFIDENT
Detroit started Canadiens with a goal in the first twenty-five seconds of play. Thereafter the motor city team played with confidence, even though the habitants knotted the score with Howie Morenz's clever goal eleven minutes later.

In the third, Herbie Lewis, speedy Falcon centre, cut loose for two goals on rebounds to put the Detroiters into a commanding lead.

"Chuck" Gardiner, youthful goalkeeper of the Black Hawks, proved he is one of the main reasons why the Windy City is heading the American group parade, when he blanked Rangers in Madison Square Garden, and chalked up his third shutout. The Hawks had a noticeable edge in play, but there were many times when the famous trio of the Cook brothers and Frankie Boucher, broke through the Hawk defence, to test Gardiner from close range.

Detroit, Nov. 28.—The Detroit Falcons downed the fast-skating Montreal Canadiens, 3-2, here yesterday evening in a wild nip-and-tuck National League hockey match witnessed by 14,000 persons, the largest crowd of the current season.

Tied one-all in the first period, when Tommy Filmore, Falcon wing, overgave the puck over the back of the net to beat George Hainsworth, Canadian goalie, and Howie Morenz teamed with Burke Canadian defence star to beat the Hawks' goalie, the Canadiens suffered through the breaks of the final period. There was no scoring in the second frame.

Joliet was serving a major penalty, and Morenz, a minor in the final period, when Herbie Lewis, Falcon wing, broke through to score. Then Burke Canadian defence star was given a minor, and Lewis scored again while the Montreal team was short-handed two men.

Morenz teamed with Gagnon midway in the period to score, but the Canadiens couldn't beat the Falcon defence in the final minutes, although they sent five men down the ice in a wild melee that kept the crowd roaring.

LINE-UPS
Canadiens—Hainsworth, S. Mantha, Burke, Morenz, Wasnie, Joliet, sub: Lewis, Gagnon, Leduc, McCaffery, G. Mantha.

New York, Nov. 28.—The Chicago Black Hawks swept over their leading rivals for National Hockey League honors yesterday evening, defeating the New York Rangers, 4-0, in a lightning-fast game.

The big Chicago squad completely outplayed its rival for the first two periods, and eased only a trifle in the final frame after it had given 13,000 fans a sample of nearly every kind of scoring of which hockey can boast.

Johnny Gottselig started the scoring in the first period on a pass from Vic Ripley. Art Somers tallied unassisted early in the second frame and Adams slapped in Miller's rebound about eight minutes later.

Cy Wentworth scored alone just before the end of the frame, when the Hawks had two men in the penalty box.

Mickey Walker And Christner Meet To-night

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Mickey Walker, king of the world middleweights, will make his second raid into the heavyweight division to-night, with tough Mayer "K.O." Christner of Akron, Ohio, as his opponent in a ten-round bout at the Coliseum.

Christner will outweigh the toy bulldog by at least thirty pounds, and is regarded as a serious test.

The second round will be an eight-rounder between Battling Bore, a quietistic character from Birmingham, Ala., and Harry Dillon, Canadian light heavy of Winnipeg.

Yesterday evening by coming from behind and ramming through two third period scores to set back the Ottawa Senators, by a 2 to 1 score.

Eric Pettinger, ex-Bruin, put the Senators in the lead when he smashed the puck into the Boston cage on an assist from Harold Starr in the second period. The Bruins squared matters in the first few seconds of the final, when Eddie Shore put one of his rugged drives and fed Dit Clapper with a scoring pass.

The trio rushed and Harry Oliver scored on the rebound that followed Perk Galbraith's hard drive at goalie Connell.

LINE-UPS
Boston—Thompson, Shore, Hitchman, Barry, Oliver, Galbraith, Suba, Weiland, Clapper, Gainer, Owen, Harris, Pratt, Hutton, Chagman.

Ottawa—Connell, Alex Smith, Art Smith, Lamb, Finnigan, Kilrea, Suba, Connor, Starr, Cox, Pettinger, Toubey, Chagne.

Referee—Mallison and Shaver.

SUMMARY
First period—No score.
Second period—1, Ottawa, Pettinger (Starr), 9:15.

Third period—2, Boston, Clapper (Shore), 6:22; 3, Boston, Oliver (Galbraith), 7:50.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 28.—The Chicago Shamrocks opened the American League home season here yesterday evening by defeating the Tulsa Oilers 4 to 1, before a crowd of 8,000 at the Chicago Stadium.

The locals got by at the outset, Clayton skating down the boards, evading the defence and shooting past McCusker for the opening goal. The last period was marked by some rough play on both sides. Burns of the Shamrocks and Wakeford of Tulsa came to blows and were given major penalties.

Kansas City, Nov. 28.—Aggressive skating and superior lack checking earned Kansas City a 2-1 American League hockey victory here yesterday evening. Except for the first period, which was evenly contested, Kansas City held an edge.

Burt McLeod scored Kansas City's first goal in the second period after a brilliant solo dash the length of the rink and Scott counted in the third. Bill Cousineau scored for St. Louis with a long shot.

HOCKEY

HOCKEY'S GREATEST GOALIE

The Windsor Bulldogs of the International Hockey League, have guarded their net with a man whom shrewd critics have called hockey's greatest goalie, Clint "Benny" Benedict. Clint has been seventeen years in major league hockey and has played in half a score of world series. During that time he has set a record that is likely to stand for all time. In the Stanley Cup play-offs of 1925-26 he turned back the Victoria Cougars in three of the four games scoreless. Benedict possesses an eagle eye and the quickness of a cat. In the days when goalies were not allowed to drop to the ice to stop shots, he was dubbed "Tumbling Benny" because he insisted on going down to his knees to stop shots, and strange as it seems to the fans a big thrill. Clint is an Ottawa "boy" born in Bytown back in '94. He is a six-footer. Benedict and the late George Vesina were acknowledged kings of the net.

Portland In Draw With Seattle to Gain League Lead

Bobby Rowe's Buckaroos Hold Eskimos to Scoreless Tie At Rose City; Teams Play Under Last Year's Rules and Game Is Speeded Up With Less Whistle Blowing; Few Penalties Are Seen; Portland Holds First Place By Single Point.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 28.—The Portland Buckaroos to-day held first place, by a one-point margin, in the Pacific Coast Hockey League standings.

The Buckaroos played the Seattle Eskimos through three regular periods and a ten-minute overtime period to a scoreless tie here yesterday evening. Victory for Seattle would have put the Eskimos in first place with a two-point margin.

The game was played under the off-side rule of last year which allows players to cross the blue line ahead of the puck. The new rule, forbidding them to cross ahead of the puck, was scratched when the coach expressed strong disapproval. Return to the old rule cut down the whistle blowing and speeded up the game.

CLEAN PLAY
The game advanced to the second period without penalties. Then, Benson of Seattle, was sent off the ice for two minutes for tripping McGoldrick. There were three penalties in the third period and two in the overtime.

Goalies of both teams were kept busy fending off the puck. Kemp, Eskimo goalie, performed especially well in making almost impossible saves on short shots. Andy Aitkenhead saved the Portland net from dents by blocking numerous long, hard shots from the blue line.

THE LINE-UPS
Seattle—Kemp, Benson, Savage, Stuart, Bellefleur, Dyak, Suba—Humber, Anderson, Walker, Sutherland, Campbell.

Portland—Aitkenhead, McGoldrick, Ralston, Conn, Downie, Poole, Suba—Burke, Coupez, Teel, Maher, Armstrong.

JOKERS CAN OBTAIN LEAD BY VICTORY

Will Clash With Thistles at Victoria West Park in Crucial Soccer Tilt

Esquimalt May Lose Top Place For First Time; Wests Oppose Victoria City

Owing to the fact that the rugby players will be using the Royal Athletic Park grounds to-morrow afternoon, the First Division soccer match between the Jokers and Sanich Thistles, originally scheduled at these grounds, has been switched to the Victoria West Park.

In the other match of the day Victoria City, and the Victoria West eleven will play at the lower Beacon Hill grounds. Both matches will commence at 2.45 o'clock. Esquimalt, the league leaders, will be idle.

Resting only one point behind Esquimalt the Jokers by a victory over Sanich can take the league lead. While a draw will put them on even terms with the Dockers, Esquimalt have held first place since the beginning of the season. The Jokers have been traveling at a fast clip in recent matches, and it would be surprising if they checked in with a win, although the Thistles are formidable opposition.

The Wests-City match should provide some good football as both teams are showing up well at present. Last week the greenshirts held Esquimalt to a draw, while Wests City played to a deadlock with the Jokers.

THE TEAMS
Some of the teams for to-morrow follow:

Sanich Thistles—Bridges, Joe Crowe and K. Walter, William Fingers and Jim Crowe, McMillan, F. Price, S. Esaler, Minnis and King.

Victoria City—Abbott, Margison and Hagen; Dobryn, Campbell and Bowman; Barnwell, Smith, Manson, McConnell and Glancy. Reserves: Pepin, Cameron and Glendinning. Players will meet at the Veterans of France at 2 o'clock.

Sons of England juveniles—Todd; Pearce and Bridges; Emery, Fieldhouse, Ward and Addison; Kennedy, Richard, Miller, Young, Price and Edwards.

Cotton Crashes Into Boards And Goes to Hospital

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 28.—The first serious injury to a Maple Leaf hockey player this season occurred yesterday when Cotton Crashes struck the goalpost and crashed into the boards. Cotton was rushed to hospital, but the extent of his injuries are not yet known. There is some doubt as to whether he will be in the line-up when the locals face the Detroit Falcons here to-morrow night.

MR. BEAR TAKES NONE TOO KINDLY TO MAT BATTLE

E. Marshall, Los Angeles Heavyweight, Makes Hasty Exit From Cage

Former Wrestling Partner of Heavyweight Forgets and Shows Bad Temper

Kansas City, Nov. 28.—A bit of ballyhoo went berserk here yesterday evening and Everett Marshall, Colorado heavyweight wrestler, had cause for thanking.

Marshall was scheduled to wrestle a bear at Swope Park as a reminder to sportsmen, that he was matched with a human opponent down to-night.

A crowd of 1,500 persons gathered at the park. News reel sound wagons were set up. Marshall stepped into the cage with the 350-pound black bear he had presented to the city.

The bear was nervous. He snapped at the air, revealing a splendid set of molars. His claws dug at the floor of the cage.

The spectators waited expectantly. Tex Clark, superintendent at the zoo, regarded Bruin with experienced eyes.

"I don't know how much you know about bears," he said finally to the Le Junta contender, "but you'd better get out of here."

Marshall, bare in comparative safety, explained he had not taken on the bear for some time and the animal consequently was not so friendly as he might have been.

SARAZEN AND ESPINOSA WIN SECOND MATCH

Defeat Phil Taylor and Dave Black 4 and 2 in Exhibition Golf at Vancouver

Vancouver, Nov. 28.—Shooting six birdies and twelve pars, Gene Sarazen, New York professional, provided the thrills to the exhibition golf match here yesterday when he and his partner, Al Espinosa, Chicago, defeated Dave Black, Vancouver, and Phil Taylor, Victoria, 4 and 2. Sarazen tied the record score of 67.

Provincial champions, including many of the best swimmers and divers in Western Canada, will be competing at the top of their form in the Crystal Garden to-morrow evening, when Vancouver and Victoria aquatic stars clash in the Y.M.C.A. championship gala. Three title events will be included on the card, which promises to be one of the finest seen in the local tank this year.

ROUGHRIDERS WILL FORGET ABOUT TITLE

Western Canada Football Champs Will Not Challenge For Dominion Honors

Coach Al Ritchie Decides Against Putting Weakened Squad Against Easterners

Canadian Press
Regina, Nov. 28.—Unbeaten, untied and unapproached in their conquest of the West, Regina Roughriders to-day had given up plans for another run into the East for a fourth straight crack at the Canadian Rugby title. Perhaps the best of all Regina teams, that two weeks ago went to British Columbia to win its fifth consecutive western championship, was told yesterday evening to forget football till next fall and leave Dominion honors to the conqueror in the East.

Because several players were unable to make the trip, Coach Al Ritchie definitely decided against challenging for the Grey Cup. With his strongest line up, Ritchie had been unable to win a single inter-sectional final in the last three attempts and he argued that it would be useless to take a patched machine into battle against either Hamilton Tigers or Balmy Beach, so the Roughriders have called it a year.

CLOSER EACH YEAR
Last fall, Ritchie's team was beaten in the final by Hamilton—but by a much closer score than the previous year, which in turn was closer than the 1927 count. Roughriders, with an experienced, heavy line and plays that were timed and shrouded perfectly by a clever backfield, were confident they had a chance in the east this year, but they were not anxious to make the effort without a full squad.

THEY WILL FIGHT FOR BACK STROKE HONORS TO-MORROW

Here are two of the big shots in the British Columbia back stroke championship event to be staged in the Y.M.C.A. tank to-morrow evening at the Crystal Garden. On the left is Denny Walker, fast young junior, who will carry the local "Y" colors, while the other youth is George Burrows, tried star of the Vancouver A.S.C.

RUGGERS WILL USE ATHLETIC PARK SATURDAY

Strife between local rugby and soccer officials flared up yesterday evening when a dispute arose over the use of the Royal Athletic Park to-morrow, but when the smoke of battle had cleared away, the rugby officials were still in possession of the grounds granted them by the Lower Island Football Association earlier in the week.

The trouble apparently arose when the Saturday League soccer men objected to not receiving notice that the oval ball players would be using the grounds.

After considerable argument, Alderman James Adam, one of B.C.'s most prominent soccer men, stepped forward and threw his weight in with the rugby officials.

As a result the J.B.A.A. and Canadian Scottish seniors will trot their teams onto the field for the big game to-morrow.

During the disagreement, it was pointed out that the rugby players would not be able to use the grounds for the first half of the game, and "reps" will be playing in Vancouver.

The Scots and Bays, principals in the fight for the leadership of the senior league in to-morrow's fixture, have been traditional rivals since the Highlanders entered the league some years ago. The city championship has been snatched from one by the other and is still as greatly desired by both as it has ever been.

In the intermediate league, Victoria College, undefeated leaders, will clash with the Canadian Scottish, while the Oak Bay Wanderers will try to dislodge the J.B.A.A. The students' militia fixture will be played at Victoria High School grounds, while the other match will be staged at the Royal Athletic Park.

With the intermediates virtually at the end of the first half of the league, College has etched the first half championship, while the Bays are resting comfortably in second place. The Oak Bay Wanderers and Canadian Scottish appear to be having a merry little game of puss-in-the-corner in the basement.

J. B. Acland will referee the senior game, with C. Jones in charge at Oak Bay Park. G. C. Grant will handle the whistle at the High School grounds.

VANCOUVER PAIR BEAT ENGLISHMEN

J. G. Muir and J. E. Underhill Triumph Over Touring Badminton Stars

Former Beats J. F. Devlin While Underhill Wins Over D. C. Hume

Vancouver, Nov. 28.—Leading English badminton players, now touring Canada, went down to defeat before the superior play of two Vancouver men yesterday evening in two stirring singles encounters. J. G. Muir, Vancouver, defeated J. F. Devlin, former all-England champion, 15-14, 15-12, while J. E. Underhill, former Canadian titleholder, downed the present all-England champion, D. C. Hume, 15-10, 15-9.

Over 1,100 badminton enthusiasts witnessed the matches, which were played on the courts of the Vancouver Lawn Tennis and Badminton Club. Muir defeated Devlin by his aggressive tactics. Devlin was on the defensive most of the match. In the other singles match, Underhill combined perfect defence with splendid court generalship to defeat the English champion. Underhill's clears were a feature. In an exhibition doubles match, Hume and Uber, England, defeated Sir George Thomas and Devlin, England, 19-4, 19-9. The winners turned in a stellar performance.

A GREAT MATCH
In an international doubles match, Sir George Thomas and R. M. White, the English pair, defeated Muir and Underhill, 6-15, 17-14, 17-14. It was the most thrilling match of the night. The Canadians led, 10-1, at one time during the second game after having won the first rather easily, but the Englishmen staged a spirited rally to finally win out. Again in the third game the Vancouver pair took a good lead, but the visiting pair repeated their second game performance to take the match two games to one.

An exhibition singles match between two of the visiting players was won by R. M. White, holder of two major titles in England. He defeated R. F. C. Nichols, 17-14, 15-13.

Saturday Ends Tournament For Pee Wee Golfers

But two more days remain for aspirants for miniature golf honors to make the bid for city championships. The competition, through which the lady champion and the man champion of miniature golf will be selected over all scores in Victoria will close Saturday at midday.

All players competing for the cash prizes and many other prizes awarded are asked to turn in their cards by that time and the work of selecting the prize winners from the many entries will start immediately.

The last few days of the contest has been marked by keen competition and close scores and a considerable improvement from the early scores turned in and those turned in in the closing stages of the tournament as players perfected their games has been noted. A considerable upset in earlier records is expected when the final counts are made.

LA BARBA IS FAVORED TO BEAT TAYLOR

Former Flyweight Champion Well-defined Choice to Beat Terre Haute Boy

Barba Will Have to Overcome Jinx That Trails Favorites at Madison Square

New York, N.Y., Nov. 28.—Another two-to-one shot goes to the post in Madison Square Garden to-night and those who back their opinions with cold cash are hoping Fidel La Barba has better luck than recent favorites have had in the garden. La Barba, the former world flyweight champion, meets Bud Taylor, a body-punching featherweight from Terre Haute, Ind., in the main go.

In recent weeks, Kid Chocolate, Al Singer and Jimmy McLaughlin, heavy favorites all, have been beaten at the Garden. La Barba was the cause of one of these upsets, for he whipped Chocolate when the Cuban negro was a 3 to 1 choice. Largely because of his showing in the bout, La Barba has been established a well-defined choice to-night.

The winner has been promised a match with the survivor of the Chocolate-Battalino featherweight title bout, to be held here December 12.

Theobald Misses Bowling Hall Of Fame By "Wiggle"

"Eleven strikes and a wiggle" is well-known expression among ten-pin bowlers after just missing a perfect game. It is just what Albert Theobald, popular member of the Poodle Dog Cafe team in the Olympic Senior League, recorded while playing a friendly match yesterday afternoon at the Olympic alleys.

Theobald's wiggle came in the third frame, however, after he had started with two strikes. After that he tossed in nine straight strikes for a total of 279.

Witnesses of the game declare that the hit on which Theobald took nine strikes was a "good one." Albert piloted his trusty mineralite right into the pocket, but just one of those breaks which sometimes occur in a bowling game robbed him of the strike, and what would have been a perfect game, and incidentally of a $100 prize given at the alleys for a 300 score.

Station Agent Wins Canadian Pitching Event

Toronto, Nov. 28.—George W. Walwin, a station agent of Janesville, Ont., is the newly crowned king of Canadian horseshoe pitchers.

Without losing a single game in the long series of preliminaries and elimination, Walwin established two new records before he won the championship at the Royal Winter Fair here yesterday evening.

Sonnenberg Wins Bout With Sherry

Boston, Nov. 28.—Gus Sonnenberg, claimant to the heavyweight wrestling title, won a victory over Jack Sherry, of Ohio, with a head scissor hold here yesterday evening after his opponent had squared the match with a series of headlocks and a body slam.

Sonnenberg won the first fall with a nine minutes.

Ganges, Nov. 28.—Miss Maude Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Scott of Rockridge. Ganges is progressing favorably after an operation at the Krumholz Hospital, New York.

A very jolly time was spent at the "White House," Fulford Harbor, on Thursday evening, when the girls of the Ganges High School and the members arranged a whist party and dances to raise funds for the purpose of providing a new piano for the members. There were nine tables, and the hostesses of which were the Misses K. Dane, E. Morris, I. Vye, D. Crofton, M. Hamilton, and Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. M. Gyrore and Mrs. M. G. Ganges. Eaton and C. Hamilton, consolations going to Misses M. Hamilton, I. Vye and Messrs Douglas and Caldwell.

Baby Requires Three Times As Much Water As Grownup

BUT DOCTOR WARNS AGAINST TOO MUCH DILUTION OF INFANT'S FOOD AS IT CAUSES SICKNESS

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN

The average adult should take seven glasses of water a day, the usual rule being a glass on arising, a glass before going to bed, a glass at each meal and a glass between each meal.
In addition to that, much water is taken in the food.

The water requirement of an infant is high; in fact, about three times that of a grown-up. The reason for this high water requirement is that the infant is carrying on much more activity in its tissues because of its rapid rate of growth.

Furthermore, in the infant, the output of heat is greater in proportion to its weight than that of a grown-up individual. The heat is removed from the body chiefly by evaporation of water and therefore more water is required.

Large amounts of food taken in require constant circulation of water from the blood to the intestines and back again in order to take care of digestion and absorption of the food constituents. Furthermore, since so much food material is taken in, there is a great deal of waste material to be put out. The waste matter is not put out in solid form, but dissolved and water is required for this purpose.

Of all the water taken in, about 50 to 60 per cent goes out through the kidneys; 30 to 35 per cent by evaporation from the skin and the lungs, and 5 to 10 per cent by way of the bowels. Some 2 per cent is retained in the body in order to carry on the necessary chemical interchanges.

Obviously various external conditions can influence greatly the control of the water. If the room is hot an excess amount of water has to be evaporated from the skin in order to maintain the temperature of the body at normal. If the child cries a great deal and exercises its limbs, the amount of water lost from the skin and the lungs is increased.

If it has diarrhea for any of the reasons that have been mentioned in this series, the amount of water lost from the bowels may equal or actually exceed the amount of fluid taken in. If vomiting results because of infection or any other reason, water taken by mouth may be promptly returned and be of no benefit to the body.

Finally, if for any reason the rate of breathing is greatly increased, as occurs in pneumonia or in severe conditions of acidosis, the amount of water lost by the way of the lungs is greatly increased.

Because of the many factors that enter into the control of water in the body, it is not possible to state the exact amount of water that should be taken by any single infant. The average normal infant fed by its mother on the breast should receive throughout the first year of its life about 2 1/4 ounces of water for each pound of its body weight each day.

Thus, the infant weighing "en pounds" should receive twenty-five ounces of water. This takes care of its needs when there is hot weather, diarrhea or vomiting. In the case of artificial feeding, the proteins and salts in the diet are usually higher and there is increased elimination, so that more water is required in order to take care of the output from the kidney. Extra amounts of water may be given to infants between feedings

in order to supply any reasonable needs.

A small excess of water will not produce any serious disturbance, but too much water given with food will interfere with its absorption because the size of the cavity of the stomach is limited. If the material given to the infant is diluted too greatly it will vomit or in other ways get rid of the excess.

CANDIDATE IS FAIR IN REMARKS, STATES COUNSEL

Vancouver, Nov. 28.—Alex. Henderson, K.C., has written to the Vancouver city council on behalf of his client, L. D. Taylor, intimating that the latter has fully explained over the radio what he meant by his criticism of the expenditure of $7,250 of city funds. The council had requested Mr. Taylor to explain his statement.

"He instructs me," wrote Mr. Henderson, "and I have personally great satisfaction in so advising you, that he meant no reflection on the personal honor of his worship, the mayor or any member of the city council."

"May I add, however, that it is my opinion, and I have so advised my client, that his remarks on the subject do not transcend the limits of fair criticism."

SEES BETTER GAME WITHIN FIVE YEARS

Sir George Thomas Says Badminton Has Secured Tremendous Hold in Canada

Badminton is taking a tremendous hold in Canada, according to Sir George Thomas, leader of the British badminton team playing in the city to-day.

"There is a very marked improvement in the play, compared with five years ago, when it was a little weak," declared Sir George at the Empress Hotel to-day, referring to his visit to Canada five years since.

He spoke enthusiastically of the new Winter Club in Winnipeg, where there are fourteen badminton courts. The Granite Club at Toronto, he said, was similar in size.

There are thirty-three badminton clubs in Regina, which is but an indication of the growing interest in the strenuous sport in the Canadian West. The British team leader said.

While not making any allusion, Sir George said the British team was not playing in the international match between the heavy programme under the schedule arranged by the Canadian Badminton Association.

Since arriving at Quebec on November 18 the British team has played exhibition games at Ottawa, Winnipeg, Moose Jaw, Regina, Calgary and Vancouver.

They play here this afternoon and evening.

Going east from Vancouver to-morrow the team will travel to Edmonton and will later play in Toronto, Kingston and Montreal. On December 12 they will sail from Quebec for England.

"I consider this is a pretty fast schedule," observed Sir George.

Sir George has been interested in badminton since 1903, when he starred in the international match between England and Ireland.

He is now vice-president of the British Badminton Association, of which Col. Arthur Hill is president. Sir George believes badminton is the ideal game for Canada.

He claims it provides harder exercise within three-quarters of an hour than in any other game. It combines great delicacy of touch with hard hitting and alertness of eye.

LIBERALS ARE PREPARING TO FILL B.C. NEEDS

Will Have Duties of Government to Fulfill in Near Future, Says G. S. Pearson

Nanaimo Member Addresses Vancouver Liberal Association at Annual Meeting

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Nov. 28.—Readjustment of economic functions to true service of social needs is the problem with which the Liberal Party must be prepared to grapple, George S. Pearson, M.P.P. for Nanaimo, said at the annual meeting of the Vancouver Liberal Association yesterday evening.

Government leadership to the end of better co-ordination of industry and greater co-operation between industry and workers could go far to effect this readjustment, he affirmed.

PREPARE FOR DUTIES

In an address which evoked enthusiastic applause, Mr. Pearson declared that the Liberal Party was for just criticism of the Tories Government, he believed its shortcomings were so well known the real task of the Liberal Party was to prepare itself for the responsibilities it must face on taking office in British Columbia in the near future.

To that the party must be prepared to give real leadership in fundamentals. The great problem of to-day was revealed by the present economic depression and unemployment.

Conventional explanations failed to satisfy. The fact was that the present economic system had broken down, he declared. "The world was full of goods and thousands could not get access to the necessities of life."

DISTRIBUTION NEEDED

"We must face the facts," said Mr. Pearson. "In the general greed for gain and power, notwithstanding our tremendous progress in science and industry, our leaders of finance and economics have neglected to see consumption keeps pace with productive capacity. They have failed to see a reasonable portion of the increment is distributed, instead of hogging it all for themselves."

There must be a readjustment so the average man will get a better share of the world's goods."

LITVINOFF SAYS DISARMAMENT PLANS FAILING

Canadian Press

Berlin, Nov. 28.—Maxim Litvinoff en route to Moscow for the Preparatory Disarmament Commission.

On arrival here he said that if the draft treaty or the convention to be drawn up at Geneva was the best to be accomplished after five years of international negotiations, it would be better to leave the preparation for a forthcoming international disarmament conference to "reliable clerks," instead of consuming the time of representatives of thirty nations.

The Soviet Commissar of Foreign Affairs left Geneva suddenly last week after a series of differences with the presiding officer of the conference.

He said he had left the conference because it had become apparent the real purpose of the "disarmament" proposals was to prevent by all means any reduction in the existing strength.

Grandi, Italian Foreign Minister, after his departure from Geneva was only "a friendly formality."

WILL PROSECUTE THOSE WHO FAIL TO PAY POLL TAX

The first of a series of prosecutions against citizens who have failed to pay poll tax to the city this year was made in City Police Court this morning when A. Rumsby was fined $2.50 costs. Although Mr. Rumsby had paid the tax since being summoned he was assessed the costs. Tax collectors said prosecutions would be carried out against others who have not paid the tax in response to repeated requests.

MEXICAN QUAKE RECORDED HERE

Tremors Continued Two Hours, Gonzales Heights Recording Machine Shows

An earthquake of moderate intensity, distant about 1,500 miles from Victoria, was recorded at the Gonzales Heights Meteorological Station at 11:41 o'clock yesterday evening. The tremors continued for about two hours. F. Napier Denison, meteorologist, this morning stated that the quake was probably in Mexico and was one of the series which is now taking place around the marginal area of the Pacific Ocean.

Washington, Nov. 28.—An earthquake, which centred about 2,200 miles from Washington, was recorded to-day at the Georgetown University Seismological Observatory. The disturbance lasted from 2:30 a.m. to 4 a.m. with the maximum movement at 2:53. While the direction could not be determined definitely, the observatory scientists believed the quake might have been in South America.

TAX RELIEF FOR PEOPLE IN JAPAN QUAKE ZONE

Tokio, Nov. 28.—The cabinet to-day approved a tax remission to sufferers in the earthquake this week on the Izu Peninsula. Various measures for facilitating reconstruction also were adopted.

Recovery was well under way to-day in the earthquake zone. The rebuilding of homes—was begun while the funeral incense still was burning for the more than 250 dead.

Wire communication was being restored rapidly and the principal railways resumed normal service. Large crews of workmen began clearing highways, using dynamite to remove obstructions.

Minor after shocks continued on the peninsula. In the twenty-four hours ended at 4:45 p.m. to-day there were 500 shocks, but the majority were imperceptible to the populace.

B.C. Police Cover Million and Half Miles on Duty

Members of the B.C. police force traveled 1,539,493 by air, land and water in pursuance of duties last year, according to the annual report of Col. J. H. McMullen, commissioner.

With a force of seven officers and 196 non-commissioned officers, an area of 372,630 square miles was patrolled. The mileage traveled by the force is segregated as follows: By rail 313,551 miles, by automobile 796,162 miles, by motorcycle 139,501 miles, by launch 47,860 miles, by saddle horse 11,278 miles, by foot 147,795 miles and by air 143 miles.

Expansion of the work of the force was made up mostly of taking over policing of Chilliwack city and district, Glenora and Pitt Meadows while services were enlarged in other municipalities.

TO SPEED UP COMPLETION OF VIMY MEMORIAL

London, Nov. 28.—Efforts are to be made to speed up the completion of Canada's Great War Memorial, which will dominate the countryside from the crest of Vimy Ridge. For one reason or another work on the Memorial has proceeded slowly in comparison with that of other national memorials. So far the Canadian Memorial, giant in conception, hardly rises above the base and it is suggested another two or three years would be needed in the ordinary way before the memorial would be complete.

FOR JOURNALISTS' HOME

New York, Nov. 28.—The James Gordon Bennett Memorial Home for New York journalists will ultimately receive more than $6,500,000 from the estate of the late publisher by virtue of increases shown in two accountings filed in the Surrogate's Court. The estate tax commission appraised the estate in 1923 at $4,850,000. Mrs. Bennett died in 1918.

AUSTRALIA WILL NOT REPUDIATE HER OBLIGATIONS

Percy E. Coleman, Commonwealth Legislator, Says Country Basically Sound

"Australia's financial position is sounder than that of countries not faced with difficulties as serious as ours."

"The story that Australia will repudiate her war debts is absurd piffle. The Commonwealth has great assets and is basically sound."

Percy E. Coleman, member of the Australian Federal Parliament, who has been at Geneva and in Great Britain as representative of the Australian Labor government in various capacities, spoke scathingly of calamity howling and general misrepresentation, particularly in Europe, concerning Australia.

SAILS BY SIERRA

Arriving at the Empress Hotel yesterday from Vancouver, Mr. Coleman left this afternoon for Seattle en route to San Francisco, from which port he will sail by the liner Sierra on December 2 for Sydney, N.S.W.

"I am convinced that if the world stays very long in this present economic sea of Sargasso we will be a better position than most of our critics," he said. "Australia's difficulties arise through circumstances beyond her control."

"In common with the rest of the world, Australia is a victim of a sudden fall in prices."

"We depend largely upon our exports of wool and wheat. During the last year our exports of wool dropped twenty-six million pounds sterling in value and our exports of wheat ten million pounds."

TRIBUTE TO SOUNDNESS

"Before last year we had been borrowing about thirty million pounds annually. That figure has dropped to ten million. With our reduction in export value and outside borrowing we are fifty-six millions down."

"It is a striking tribute to the soundness of the country that she can stand such sudden and drastic cuts in her national income. There is a good deal of talk about our total debt. Remember that four hundred million pounds of that is war debt."

Speaking of trade between Canada and Australia, Mr. Coleman said that Hon. Parker J. Maloney, Minister of Markets for Australia, will shortly visit Ottawa to carry on negotiations.

Mr. Coleman represented Australia at the International Labor Conference at the League of Nations in Geneva. He also reported to the League on the dates held by Australia over New Guinea, and jointly with Great Britain and New Zealand, over Nauru.

He said to-day that he was anxious to get back home for Christmas.

Prowler Steals Man's Trousers

A prowler in Vancouver got several dollars from Arthur Hinder of Victoria when he was on a visit to the mainland Tuesday, but he lost them in an embarrassing position far more serious than the loss of the money. Mr. Hinder was staying at a Vancouver hotel, when about 8 o'clock on the morning a man entered his room, switched on the light and started to search for valuables. Mr. Hinder awoke and the prowler made a hurried dash for his trousers. Mr. Hinder's trousers were in the corridor with some loose change which the prowler had neglected in his hurry.

WARNING ON TARIFF WAR AT GENEVA TO-DAY

Conference Chairman, Ending Sessions, Admits Nations Advanced Little

Canadian Press

Geneva, Nov. 28.—The second conference of the League of Nations for concerted economic action of member nations closed to-day with its delegates frank in their admission its results were not remarkable.

Chairman H. Collin of Holland, summarizing the work in which representatives of twenty-six states participated, declared the one ray of hope surviving the conference was in the promise of the governments to seek tariff reductions by means of bilateral negotiations. He said the conference had abandoned hope for tariff reductions through a multi-lateral convention.

"The economic conference of 1927 agreed the time had come to halt rising tariff walls and start a movement in the other direction," said the chairman in closing the twelve-day sessions to-day, "but after three years' tariff conditions in general are just as bad as ever."

NO ACTION TAKEN

"Everybody has agreed on the necessity of reduction, but nobody has done anything to live up to his belief. We have now chosen together our efforts for tariff reduction along bilateral lines which made this decision is a grave one. If this effort fails it will be disastrous to the whole of Europe because the few remaining free trade countries will have no protection left."

"The disaster will be not so much in losing these free markets, but rather in the repercussions which will follow."

PROWLERS STEAL MAN'S TROUSERS

A prowler in Vancouver got several dollars from Arthur Hinder of Victoria when he was on a visit to the mainland Tuesday, but he lost them in an embarrassing position far more serious than the loss of the money. Mr. Hinder was staying at a Vancouver hotel, when about 8 o'clock on the morning a man entered his room, switched on the light and started to search for valuables. Mr. Hinder awoke and the prowler made a hurried dash for his trousers. Mr. Hinder's trousers were in the corridor with some loose change which the prowler had neglected in his hurry.

WAR ON TARIFFS AT GENEVA TO-DAY

Conference Chairman, Ending Sessions, Admits Nations Advanced Little

Canadian Press

Geneva, Nov. 28.—The second conference of the League of Nations for concerted economic action of member nations closed to-day with its delegates frank in their admission its results were not remarkable.

Chairman H. Collin of Holland, summarizing the work in which representatives of twenty-six states participated, declared the one ray of hope surviving the conference was in the promise of the governments to seek tariff reductions by means of bilateral negotiations. He said the conference had abandoned hope for tariff reductions through a multi-lateral convention.

"The economic conference of 1927 agreed the time had come to halt rising tariff walls and start a movement in the other direction," said the chairman in closing the twelve-day sessions to-day, "but after three years' tariff conditions in general are just as bad as ever."

NO ACTION TAKEN

"Everybody has agreed on the necessity of reduction, but nobody has done anything to live up to his belief. We have now chosen together our efforts for tariff reduction along bilateral lines which made this decision is a grave one. If this effort fails it will be disastrous to the whole of Europe because the few remaining free trade countries will have no protection left."

ISLAND COAL GOOD COAL

BIG LUMPS AND LITTLE LUMPS

MANY people, when ordering coal, will specify "all large lumps." Consequently, the dealer, being anxious to please, has to screen and pick his coal on arrival from the mines. The result is that he has often only a narrow market for small lumps, and to offset this, he must charge a higher rate for large lumps.

Large lumps or small lumps... of either Nanaimo-Wellington or Comox Coals... have identically the same heat value. Thus by demanding large pieces, the consumer forces the dealer to charge more. Furthermore, if your coal is too large to go into your furnace door, it has to be broken up. This process turns a certain amount of the fuel into dust... a further loss if you have paid extra for large lumps! Another thing, large lumps in your furnace mean large air pockets, which by the draught they create, carry the heat up the chimney. More out-of-pocket loss!

It always pays to buy "Nanaimo-Wellington" or "Comox" Coal, just "as is". They contain more heat per dollar and are the most economical fuels for either domestic or industrial requirements.

Patronize these dealers. They are all reliable merchants. They are big employers of labor and they will also be glad to show you why it will pay you to support Home Industry.

LIBRARY ADDS TO BOOK LISTS IN LAST WEEK

Many Interesting Volumes in Fiction and Non-fiction Now at Public Library

Non-fiction List Particularly Good; Edgar Wallace's Latest Work Included

The Victoria Public Library's shelves have received a number of books during the last week. The non-fiction list is particularly good and includes several books which will attract a large following.

In "Civilization and Its Discontents," by Sigmund Freud, Freud exposes the vicious progress of mechanization and the simultaneous limitation and subconscious oppression of fear in each individual.

"Short Stories Out of Soviet Russia," compiled by John Cournane, is a representative selection of short stories by the best writers of Russia in the last decade.

"The Royal Navy," by G. Parratt, shows how the navy is Britain's "sure shield."

"Winning Bridge," by W. C. Whitehead, is an up-to-date work on auction bridge with the latest bidding strategy.

"A Diary of St. Helena," edited by Sir Arthur Wilson, contains first-hand information on Napoleon's exile.

"St. Augustine," by Giovanni Papini, is a study of the extraordinary career of this great saint based on careful knowledge and research.

"Kings, Churches and Statesmen," by Knut Hagerup, is a book that includes studies of George IV, Queen Victoria, ex-Kaiser Wilhelm, Lloyd George and others from the foreigner's point of view.

"Letters of Henry Adams," by W. C. Ford, covers Adams' studies in Germany and his trip to the South Sea.

"The Intelligence Service With the Canadian Corps 1914-18," by J. E. Hahn, is a description of the methods of obtaining and using information respecting the enemy.

"The Art of Henri Fantin-Latour, His Life and Work," is by Frank Gibson. Fantin-Latour is a French artist of great versatility but one who is unfortunately little known in England.

"Confessions in Art," by Harrison S. Morris, is a volume of intimate and charmingly told recollections of Whistler, Sargent, Chas. and other painters.

"Rock Gardens," by A. Edwards, is a new and authoritative work which is comprehensive and thoroughly practical and deals with construction, planning and maintenance.

"Child of Pity," by Princess Radziwill, portrays the pathetic tragedy of Alexei, son of Nicholas II, Czar of Russia.

"Proceedings of the National Conference of Social Work" contains cases that offer the best available teaching material.

"A Hundred Wonderful Years," by Mrs. C. S. Peel is an account of social and domestic life in England from 1820 to 1920.

"Navaho Tales," by Walt Whitman, 3rd, is a genuine literary discovery of the mythology of the Indian races.

"Scotland Yard," by J. P. Moynan, supplies accurate and authoritative information of the Metropolitan Police.

"Why You Win or Lose," by Fred C. Kelly, describes the psychology of speculation.

"Marriage a la Mode," by Arthur S. May, contains tales of strange wedding dramas.

"Modern Continental Plays" is a collection compiled by E. M. Tucker of twenty contemporary European plays in translation.

"The Risen Sun" is C. C. Martin's impressions in New Zealand and Australia.

"Readings From Friedrich von Hugel," compiled by Algar Thorold, includes the quintessence of Hugel's religious philosophy.

"By Guess and By God" is William Guy Carr's thrilling story of the British submarines in the Baltic and the North Sea during the war.

The fiction list, while not so extensive as the non-fiction and perhaps not so interesting, nevertheless contains a number of interesting and popular books. The list is as follows: "Calendar," by Edgar Wallace; "Woman in the Shadows," by Joseph Vance, a thrilling romance in the time of the Hungarian Revolution; "Margaret York," by Kathleen Norris, a story describing the conflict of the wills and ideals of two women; "Duel of the Queens," by Eva Rivers, a story of Queen Elizabeth and Queen of Scots; "Bracelet," by Robert Hichens; "Playground," by Katherine Tynan; "Ambition," by E. C. Guttman; "Miss Mole," by E. H. Young; "To Be Hanged," by B. Hamilton, a tale of a newspaperman's quiet sleuthing outwitting a human devil; "One of Us is a Murderer," by A. Le May, a well handled story of an unpleasant situation in the South American jungle; "Wild Wind," by Fensholt Bailey, a novel of splendid ideas and one characterized by faith and simplicity; "Spanish Lover," by F. H. Spearman, and "Kingdom Lost," by Patricia Wentworth, the ordeal of a shipwrecked girl who for twenty years sees no one but an elderly Oxford don.

Langford

Many visitors were present from Victoria, Lush, the Highlands, Colwood and Langford Lake districts on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. F. Bullen at Marshwood, when the members of St. Matthew's Guild held a Christmas gift sale.

Rev. A. L. Nixon, vicar, introduced Mrs. Charles de V. Schofield, wife of the Bishop of Columbia. Mrs. Schofield expressed her pleasure at being able to meet the members of Langford Lake district, and showed beautiful specimens of fine cross-stitch in silk and wool worked by the Tripod Industries of England.

Mrs. A. L. Nixon, Mrs. J. E. Macdonald, Mrs. L. A. Savory, Mrs. Ada Simpson and Miss Amy Gladstone. The contest section was run by Mrs. H. A. Hinks, the weight of the plum pudding being correctly calculated by both Mrs. J. E. Macdonald and Mrs. D. Macdonald.

The lucky owner, Mrs. Arthur Wall, Victoria, obtained a jar of cherries, while a box of home-made candy, made by Mrs. Satchfield, was won by Mrs. Malcolm. Mrs. B. F. Reynolds sold Christmas seals. The afternoon concluded with a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. D. B. F. Bullen, by Rev. A. L. Nixon for their hospitality.

The president and members of St. Matthew's Guild wish to thank their friends for co-operation in making the sale so successful, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the Guild fund.

Mrs. G. Smythe, of Leigh Road, while chopping wood on Tuesday, cut her foot, necessitating several stitches.

Mrs. I. Binham, who has been staying in Duncan, is the guest of Mrs. T. W. P. Jackson.

District Girl Guides are urged to be present at Langford Lakeside Hall on Saturday at 2 o'clock.

A congregational choir practice will be held Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock in St. Matthew's Church.

BADMINTON JOTTINGS

Mrs. E. F. Le Queune, Mrs. A. M. Brown, Mrs. D. Macdonald and Mrs. M. M. Mair have been made conveners for refreshments for the home match nights of the Langford Badminton Club.

The changes for playing visitors' matches on club evenings, viz. Tuesdays and Saturdays. The blackboard system of playing was criticized by members and improvements suggested.

A "B" selection committee was arranged, composed of S. Turner, H. C. Bennett and P. Mair.

Miss Dalby, of Victoria, is staying with her aunt, Mrs. A. Cowie of Lakeholm, Langford Lake.

There was a splendid attendance of members and visitors present at the monthly meeting of the Langford Women's Institute held Tuesday afternoon in their hall on Dunford Road.

Mrs. Dan Macdonald, president, presided. A letter was read by the secretary, Mrs. P. N. Welch, from Molly Dixon, who thanked the directors on behalf of the school children for the jolly time spent in the hall at Halliwell's.

A communication regarding lost books belonging to the B.C. Traveling Library, was read the members decided to refund the loss.

Details of the character card party to be held on Wednesday, December 3, were given and several members offered prizes for the event. The sum of $10 was donated towards the Salvation Army funds. Three directors were nominated for 1930. An account of her recent trip to England by Mrs. W. T. Dixon was graphically given and included descriptions of Liverpool, Oxford, Fleet and Birmingham. BREAST FED IS BEST FED

Over and over again it has been proved that the breast fed baby has far more chance of avoiding nutritional disease, of growing up to healthy childhood, than the bottle fed infant.

A baby's stomach is extremely delicate. The least departure from the normal upsets it. Therefore, every mother should ensure her baby the natural right of maternal milk. Ovaltine should be commenced as early as possible before baby is born and continued until breast feeding ceases.

Doctors, nurses and mothers themselves all over the world have testified to the wonderful assistance Ovaltine gives—the effective safeguard it provides against nutritional diseases.

OVALTINE RUSKS

are made from finest Canadian Wheat flour and Ovaltine. They are better than bread or biscuits for growing children. Their toothsome, crisp, deliciousness makes them a favorite and they ensure sound white teeth and firm healthy gums.

Two liners from the Orient will dock here to-morrow morning within a few hours of each other. They are the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Mishima Maru and the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Russia. Both ships have passengers and cargo for Victoria.

The Mishima Maru will reach Race Rocks at 4 o'clock in the morning. A. H. Hebb was advised this morning by wireless from the skipper of the ship, Capt. K. Fukuda. The Empress of Russia is speeding up, and will reach William Head at 9 o'clock in the morning instead of at noon as first advised. She will dock at the Rithet piers shortly after 10 o'clock, and will proceed to Vancouver as soon as local passengers and ninety tons of freight have been left here. Capt. A. J. Hosken, R.N.R., is in command of the Empress of Russia.

The Empress of Canada was at the Rithet piers yesterday afternoon for 48 hours on her way from Vancouver to Honolulu, Japan, China, and the Philippines Islands. She arrived at 4 o'clock and left exactly an hour later for sea.

It is hoped to have the Madison ready to proceed to Seattle at 2.30 o'clock to-morrow morning. For Victoria the ship has 1,300 tons of Japanese oranges. They are well distributed in several holds and it is expected that several gangs of longshoremen will be able to discharge them in record time. Most of the consignment is for trans-shipment to Vancouver and will be sent to the mainland to-morrow aboard the C.P.R. coast steamer Princess Victoria, which is being especially commissioned to take care of the unusually large Orient cargo.

NEW HYGIENE EXPLAINED BY DR. H. W. HILL

University of B.C. Bacteriologist Justifies New Outlook on Disease

No Check as Yet Against Rapid Progress of Cancer; Longevity of Life Increasing

"The old hygiene had thought only for what every little thing can do to you; the new hygiene endeavors to discover what you can do to it," said Professor H. W. Hill, of the Department of Health of the University of British Columbia, in an address on "The New Hygiene," before the University Extension Society yesterday evening. G. A. A. Hebbden, the president of the society, acted as chairman.

At the commencement of his short but interesting address, Professor Hill told his audience that the word "hygiene" was derived from the name of a Greek god's daughter and then, as at present, signified "health." Health, the speaker continued, was the ability to meet the demands of one's surroundings, whether they be physical, material or, more especially, biological; it was a personal matter and required an inward adjustment. The adjustment to hygiene in the realm of public health was sanitation, which included everything to do with one's surroundings and was an adjustment to the individual needs.

MASS OF POTENTIALITIES The motto of the old hygiene, Professor Hill said, might well be "Don't Don't, Don't," for it appeared to advocate the doctrine of finding out what a man wants to do and then not letting him do it. The new hygiene, on the other hand, recognized that the individual was a mass of potentialities which required development, but by him as the demand arose. Every man had in him the ability of achieving great things, but whether he would do it or not depended on his self-development. In a physical way, the Negro had accustomed himself to bare foot walking and the Patagonian to nakedness both in extreme cold and warmth. For such an adjustment to conditions, civilized men needed shoes and clothes. The speaker added that this adjusting ability was the test of death.

A striking illustration supplied by Professor Hill was that of man's adjustment to gravitation—a typically unconscious one. He could walk on his feet and have his blood circulate as it now does; hang him by his toes and he dies. Yet the acrobat can invert his body without feeling any bad effects. All infectious diseases were another case in point; if an individual gets them but once, his body makes the necessary adjustment and will never be infected again.

Many interesting questions were asked the speaker and commented upon in an instructive fashion. Chairman, Professor Hill said in answer to a question, was on the increase and in spite of the painstaking study of its cause was still as inexplicable as ever. It seemed to be worse on the coast. Infectious diseases were more subject to it than any city in Canada. In replying to another question, the speaker asserted that health and immunity from disease had no relation whatsoever. The strong man was weak, and just as readily as the weak, and it was a silly superstition to assume that one was more vulnerable than the other. The only way to become immune to a disease was by getting it.

Through the application of the new methods the length of the average man's life had, during the last forty years, increased at the rate of one year to every three years of elapsed time. Fifty-seven years was the modern statistician's allotted span and this, said the speaker, compared very favorably with the thirty-year average of four or five hundred years ago. This remarkable progress, concluded the speaker, seemed to justify the New Hygiene.

SCHILDHAUER TO STAY WITH DO-X Lisbon, Nov. 26.—Clarence Schildhauer, a United States flier and one of the pilots of the big German flying boat DO-X to-day denied reports he had resigned the post.

"That's a lot of nonsense," he said. "Why should I resign? This is a fine ship and it has behaved splendidly. We are going to New York all right next year, but we cannot start a flight like that without careful preparation."

The pilot said he thought the erroneous report might have arisen from the "circumstances" of his leave or absence granted by his United States employer to permit his work with the Dornier plane, which arrived here yesterday from Corunna, was expected to move on to-day to Cadiz for overhauling of its motors.

SEATTLE SHIPPING

Seattle, Nov. 28.—The eighth new vessel for the Klavens Line's Pacific Coast-Orient service, the Nansenville, has been completed and the seventh, Grandville, will leave Antwerp on her maiden voyage November 29, agents here announced yesterday. The Grandville should reach Los Angeles about December 26 and Puget Sound about the middle of January, said Hubert Sudden, district manager for the agents, Sudden and Christensen. He said the motorship Nansenville is 9,000 tons dead weight, and will have a speed of fourteen knots or better.

The ferry Liberty, inaugurating a new service between Ballard, in North Seattle, and Port Ludlow, across Puget Sound, ran around at Ballard Light at 1 a.m. yesterday but was pulled off undamaged by a tug.

Around the Docks

LOADING LUMBER

The Norwegian freighter Fernigen docked at the Ogden Point piers this morning at 2 o'clock from New York and at 8 o'clock dock workers commenced loading 600,000 feet of Vancouver Island timber aboard for Boston and New York. King Brothers, local shipping agents, who are handling the ship during her stay here, hope to clear to-morrow at noon for New Westminster.

FROM PORTS IN CHINA AND JAPAN, the Blue Funnel liner Tyndareus is now crossing the north Pacific Ocean bound for Victoria and Vancouver. She is scheduled to arrive here on Tuesday. The Tyndareus has a large parcel of Japanese oranges aboard, but most of the shipment will be sent to Vancouver and discharged there.

ON HER LAST LAP of her three weeks' voyage from Sydney and Auckland, the Canadian Australasian liner Niagara sailed from Honolulu to-day for Victoria and Vancouver. She is scheduled to dock at Victoria next Friday morning, but with good weather out on the Pacific she will probably make port by Thursday evening.

THE COAST LUMBER FREIGHTER San Diego of the Hartwood Lumber Company's fleet is expected here to-morrow from Puget Sound. She will go to the D.P.S. Ruper wharf in the upper inner harbor and take aboard for parcel of lumber and shingles for California ports.

H.M.C.S. Vancouver left the Esquimalt plant of Yarrow's Limited yesterday afternoon and proceeded to the naval wharf, after being repaired and overhauled. The Mill Bay ferry barge Canora are now at the Yarrow's plant for repairs and overhaul. Cascade is up on the marine slipway.

THE C.P.R. steamer Princess Norah left Vancouver yesterday evening at 8 o'clock for Prince Rupert and Skagway with passengers and cargo for northern ports. An hour earlier the G.N.R. steamer Prince Rupert cleared Vancouver harbor for the north. The vessel's bottom was found to be extensively damaged.

The Tamahua arrived here Wednesday after being pulled off the rocks at Pigeon Point where she grounded several weeks ago. The damage to the tanker's bottom was found to extend along the entire length and upward toward the hull, and gapping holes were disclosed.

Repairs to the ship will be a long and expensive job, a tentative survey indicated.

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

Winnipeg, Nov. 28.—Wheat opened higher this morning with prices during the first period making gains of from 1/8 to 1/16 from the close of last night, but this bulge was only temporary, as the early morning buying was largely local, which was based on the stronger than due cables, but this demand finally wilted and offerings increased greatly as the session progressed and prices broke from 3c to 3 1/4c from the early high marks of 1 1/4c to 3 1/4c under the close Thursday night, from this low point there was a good recovery of about 1/16, late offerings becoming scarce with local buying, considerable of which was short covering.

The selling pressure which broke the market was believed to be largely in the nature of unwinding of positions between here and Chicago, but the manner in which the market came back from the low spots encourage further buying by American interests, due to the fact that the Chicago market had held so much stronger than Winnipeg, and the market made a further recovery, closing only about 1c down for the day.

The market was very nervous at these levels, and good support develops on the break, but buying thins out and offerings increase on the market. There was no urgent demand for cash wheat. There was some shipping demand for certain grades and buyers were waiting for a better market for odd lots. Offerings generally were only moderate. Export business overnight was small, although there were fairly good sales made in various positions during the past twenty-four hours.

The mills report a few odd orders coming in from time to time, but there is no broad demand for flour, an official announcement was made this morning that John I. McFarland had been appointed manager of the central selling agency of the pool. Bradstreet's North American shipments this week were only 3,135,000 bushels, while the two southern hemisphere countries cleared 1,800,000 bushels. Winnipeg futures closed 1/4 to 3/8 off with heavy short covering in the final moments.

Coarse grains.—These markets were also nervous and erratic in action, with a narrow range, and were largely influenced by the trend of wheat. The cash coarse grains markets were generally quiet and featureless.

Flax—Dull and featureless, and closing prices 1/4 to 1/8 higher.

Liverpool close 1/4 to 1/8 lower on Winnipeg.

The mills report a few odd orders coming in from time to time, but there is no demand for flour. An official announcement was made this morning that John I. McFarland has been appointed manager of the central branch agency of the pool. Bradstreet's report of the wheat crop in the North American continent this year was only 3,135,000 bushels, while the two southern hemisphere countries cleared 1,800,000 bushels. Winnipeg is short of wheat 100,000 bushels, a heavy short covering in the final month.

Coarse grains—These markets were also nervous and erratic within a narrow range, and were largely influenced by the wheat market. The other grain markets were generally quiet and featureless.

Flax and flaxseed, and clover seed, were higher.

A Question
You May Be Asking

"Is It Possible to Build an Independent Income by Means of Small Savings Regularly Made?"

The answer is that this is not only possible but easier than may appear at first glance. By means of our monthly payment plan for purchasing Government, Municipal and Public Utility securities, many salaried people are making themselves independent although their earnings are no more than $2,000 a year.

Our booklet "Investment From Income" which explains this plan in detail will be sent without obligation.

SIX BILLION TO BE SPENT
BY YEAR-END

Vast Sum of Money Will Be Circulated During Next Month

New York, Nov. 28.—More than $6,000,000,000 will go back into circulation during the remainder of this year in the form of wages, Christmas funds and stock and bond dividends, a New York newspaper's survey said to-day.

In spite of the current unemployment, the workers will get the greater part of the cash according to the newspaper, which, citing government statistics, says wages and salaries for the period will amount to about $4,000,000,000.

Stock and bond distributions will add the total to about $2,500,000,000 it is estimated. Next is added the Christmas cash savings, which, according to the paper, this year in excess of $400,000,000 or about $320,000,000 more than last year.

Finally, the paper cites the fact that nearly 11,000,000 people have accumulated savings specifically set aside to spend at this time of year.

ALBERTA POOL HANDLES LESS THAN HALF CROP

Calgary, Nov. 28.—Forty-five and six-tenths per cent of all the wheat marketed in Alberta during the season of 1929-30 was handled by the Alberta
Wheat Pool, and represented $5,442,410 bushels, as compared with 45.5 per cent of the crop represented by 67,178,756 bushels the year before.

This was shown in the report of R. D. Purdy, general manager of the Pool in Alberta, which was presented to the seventy odd delegates to the eighty annual meeting of the Alberta
Wheat Pool here yesterday.

In addition, the Pool last year also handled 1,958,890 bushels of coarse grains, including oats, barley, rye and flax.

PORT MOODY GETS SILK PLANT

Vancouver, Nov. 28.—Erection of a silk mill at Port Moody, B.C., approximately $250,000, is under consideration by the Western Canada Silk Limited, Howe Street. The factory will give employment to about 100 persons and the raw material will be imported from Japan and China.

The company has obtained a site consisting of about one and a quarter acre, with trucking facilities. The property was deeded to the company by the Port Moody Council at a recent meeting, following an interview with J. W. Langs, British Columbia manager.

"We are not in a position to discuss our plans just now, but expect to build in the near future," said Mr. Langs. "The plant will manufacture our brand for the Eastern Canadian market."

OTTAWA UNLIKELY TO FIX WHEAT
PRICE AT $1 BU.

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—A reply to Premier J. T. M. Anderson's communication which enclosed a recommendation of the Wheat Board to fix a minimum price of $1 a bushel for consumption in Canada, will be sent soon by Sir George Perley, acting prime minister.
George said to-day he had received the recommendation from Premier Anderson.
He could not, however, state just what he proposed to reply.

The impression here is that the Dominion Government not only does not favor fixing a minimum price for wheat, but that such a method is hardly practicable. Numerous communications from western organizations, urging a fixed price for wheat, have been received. It is understood they have been informed that such a proposal would require the approval of Parliament before it could be implemented. Possibly the Government will be inclined to state its position more definitely in the reply to Premier Anderson.

It is suggested here that the fixing of the price of wheat in Canada at $1 should not have the effect of increasing the price of flour. The Department of Labor is directing its attention to the price of flour in Canada, and an announcement made last night to the effect that, with wheat under seventy cents a bushel, the price of flour is just as high when wheat sold at $1. Senator Robertson, Minister of Labor, proposes to consult with millen on this point, and it is possible that the consultation may result in decreased flour prices to the Canadian consumer, should wheat prices remain at their present level.

TARDIEU WINS BY SMALL MARGIN

Paris, Nov. 28.—The Chamber of Deputies to-day gave the Tardieu government a majority of fourteen on a vote of confidence growing out of the investigation of the Oustrie Bank failure.

BY-ELECTION IN SCOTLAND TO-DAY

Glasgow, Scotland, Nov. 28.—The polling in the East Renfrew by-election to-day was expected to be tight, by all indications. The result will not be announced until to-morrow afternoon.

Three candidates are contesting the seat won in the last general election by the Conservative Party. The candidates are the Marquis of Clydesdale, Conservative; Ballie Irwin, Independent Labor Party; and E.
Brown, Scottish Nationalist.

Thanksgiving
Lethargy Rules
N.Y. Market

Volume Smaller To-day But Extreme Losses Are Not Maintained All Session

Although the carrier shares found the market less active after the close of the week-end, the remainder of the list retained unsettledness, and several extreme losses of 2 to 6 points were reduced by half in the late trading.

The market was in the main lathargic, as was expected in the day and a half period between a holiday and the end of the present year, and it aggregated only around 1,750,000 shares.

The week-end mercantile reviews said the cold wave had stimulated retail buying of heavy apparel, but in general reported little change in the prevailing quiet.

Share selling off 2 to 3 points then recovered, one-half of the list included. U.S. Steel, American Telephone, Consolidated Gas, Goodyear, Pennsylvania Railroad, New York Central and New York City.

Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific lost down 6 to 4 points, the former to the lowest in six years, then recovered 2 points. Illinois Central sold off 4 to the lowest in about thirty years, then recovered a point. Republic Steel lost 2 points.

Otis Steel lost 2 points on commission of the dividend.

BUYING

In connection with the railroad situation, some feel that this industry may be the first to start a series of buying movements, and it is pointed out that they have been operating for a considerable period without any whole-scale replacement of equipment.

Some have been dropping six and seven points, and it is pointed out that of locomotive, of which the recent inquiry of New York Central was a reminder and suggests that the railroad equipment companies may be due for a period of activity.

In the early afternoon the selling became more consistent although continuing on a small scale and seemed to be occasioned chiefly by the lack of further constructive business news of a concrete nature.

MOTORS RESIST DROP

It was noticeable that earlier in the session the motor shares were quite firm and in yielding subsequently seemed to be more resistant.

Moore Motors stricken from board
this morning.

This company no longer maintains a bank of England sold 368,648 pounds gold bars.

Large stockholding interests in Diamond Match both in Chicago and London, have been meeting to consider plans to persuade management of Diamond Match Company to reconsider plan of recapitalization and reorganization operative in view of overwhelming sentiment in favor of it as indicated by substantial deposits of stock.

Call money was firmer and quoted two per cent. The outside market for gold was quiet with 1 1/2 per cent Wednesday and 1 per cent Tuesday. Official rate will probably remain at 2 per cent.
There has been loan selling, but surplus funds are not being offered at concessions.

LOST IN FOG
ON COMOX LAKE

Special to The Times
Cumberland, Nov. 28.—To be lost in the fog on Comox Lake (Lake Cumberland), was the experience of three employees of the Canadian Collieries Monday night.

Four men were rowing in boats from Pore Point to White Bay, where the new shaft is being sunk. Returning to the mine to catch the work train about 10 o'clock at night, three members of the shift failed to report at the train. Blasts on the whistle and shouts failed to bring any response, and after three hours the search continued. Bonfires were built to attract attention, but it was not until 1 o'clock that searchers on Jack's Point heard a faint halloo from the darkness and located the missing boat, heading for the top of the lake.

NANAIMO JUDGE

Special to The Times
Nanaimo, Nov. 28.—The judge in the gambling case at Nanaimo today evening in Chinatown, Magistrate Beavor Potts fined Ah Fee, keeper of the house, $50 and the eleven inmates $10 each.

CROW'S NEST PASS DROPS DIVIDEND

The quarterly dividend of Crow's Nest Pass Coal Co. due December 1, has been passed by the directors due to the steady decline in earnings which the company has experienced over the past few years. The company has paid dividends of 6 per cent per year on its common shares of $100 par value since 1919 with the exception of 1924, when 4 1/2 per cent was paid.

Dividends were earned in 1928 and 1929 but with the exception of these years payments have been made out of surplus and later from reserves.
Earnings have been affected by use of oil-burning locomotives on the Rocky Mountain haul, development of the Alberta coal fields and the disappearance of domestic markets due to competition from other fuels, notably natural gas.

At the last annual meeting of shareholders held in June, authority was obtained to set aside from reserves a sum of $623,652 as a special reserve.
Dividends have since been paid from this sum and therefore have constituted repayment of capital.

Westminster Bank
Chairman Resigns

London, Nov. 28.—The board of directors of the Westminster bank, one of the "big five" British financial institutions, Wednesday announced the resignation of Robert Hugh Tennant from the chairmanship. Rupert R.
Beckett is the successor.

SASKATCHEWAN TO HAVE FEWER BEER STORES

Canadian Press
Moosejaw, Nov. 28.—Twenty-five beer stores in Saskatchewan are to be closed down by Liquor Board before the end of the present year, and if conditions call for it, still more will be closed down, according to Hon. M.
A. Macpherson, Attorney-General.

Mr. Macpherson's announcement at the closing session of the Saskatchewan Prohibition League convention here yesterday evening was considered a real victory for the league.

The convention calling for suspension of government control during the present economic crisis by the closing of all liquor and beer stores for as long as the depression lasts. The resolution urged the government take this step as an emergency measure.

The closing of the beer stores would be effective in central and northern parts of the province, Mr. Macpherson stated.

CHINESE GETS JUDGMENT IN TOWING ACTION

Special to The Times
Nanaimo, Nov. 28.—Tom Long, Chinese logger, was granted judgment yesterday by Mr. Justice Fisher in the case of a Chinaman, Mr. Long, vs.
the Nanaimo Logging Co., for $2,000.
The case arose out of a boom of logs lost while being towed to Vancouver. Defendant claimed that Long agreed to insure the logs and loss of the logs was an "act of God." The case was tried in the Supreme Court and judgment was delivered in writing.

'Fresh from the gardens'

Seven For a Secret

By MARY WEBB

"Well, blast me!" he muttered, checking a great roar of laughter. There was Robert, on the unbroken three-year-old cart horse, riding bareback as Elmer had ridden and galloping as if a fiend pursued him. "Well, he's got a good nerve as the other! What's took the fellow? Spring! Well, well, we know it burns in the blood. I mind when I'd done the same if I'd a thought of it. Lukka! There 'e comes. Round agent. Lord, Lord! If he brings that out down, I'll make up my mind every farthing I will. Round agent! If he works as hard as what he plays, I shall be a rich man in no time. I'd like to be a rich man of 'em at it, well, well! I dunna say as Bob Inna the best of the two. But it wouldn't do for Gillian to know it." He walked away stealthily that Robert might not know he had been watched. Later, in the stable, he came on Robert grooming the colt.

"Looks warm!" he observed. "Sweeting!" "A bit," said Robert. "Dog in the field?" "No, as I know to." "Must ha' galloped like mad to sweat so."

"They do, these spring evenings," said Robert. "They do!" assented his master. And as he went across the yard, he gave a great roar of laughter and repeated: "They do! They do!" So that Jonathan, at his tea, observed, "Master's merry." "Ah, I've not heard him laugh so long since this long while," said his wife. "Minds me of the tale of Farmer Knighthood and his brother," said Jonathan. "Never laughed, Farmer Knighthood didn't. Not if it was ever so. So his brother, young Knighthood, when they went share-croppers, he'd make him laugh. So in case he lost the bet, and in case his brother died first, Farmer Knighthood insured him for five hundred pounds. So young Knighthood tried and tried to make his brother laugh. And one day he was fooling about on top of the hay wagon and he fell off and broke his back, poor fellow. And he died. And Knighthood hadna laughed. So he got all the farm, and because his brother was dead he got the five hundred as well. And when he came back from the funeral it came over him sudden, and he laughed. And out of the chimney corner, wheezing, Knighthood was used to sit, came his brother's voice. 'You laughed!' he says. 'You've lost!' he says. 'I claim the farm,' he says. And he haunted the farm from that day, and there was no prospect in beast nor in meadow; and it went back into the moor, and Knighthood died."

Robert came in while the story was in progress, and his mother looked concernedly at his damp face and hair. "You're hot!" she said as soon as Knighthood was safely disposed of. "Whatever's been after?" "The colt inna very easy to catch, these days," said Robert meekly. But his heart was not meek. It was insolently gay. Let Elmer gallop past the farm as often as he pleased, Robert Hideout was ready to gallop also. He might not be able to make love to Gillian, as he knew with bitter rebellion that Elmer would, but any way he could gallop. And when Gillian tried him past bearing, he could go away into the far meadow and ride the colt till he was too tired to feel a thing. Also, he would begin to compote his long poem about Dryadwifas—a poem in which Gillian was to appear until the very end—a poem of rock and rugged vistas, of savage winds and wide spaces and dark weather—the expression of Robert's philosophy as he had hammered it out under winter skies. Its unemotionalism would comfort him. Brooding on it, he would attain some kind of detachment. And perhaps he would find out what it was that the moor wanted of him; why it gripped him so in snow-time; what prophecy lowered upon him so strangely in the little garden—the unkempt place.

CHAPTER XVI

Elmer came next day to accept the invitation in person. Gillian was practicing a new way of doing her hair, and a new song she had heard in Silvertown. The afternoon sun was warm; the air was keen and gay; she leaned from her window with long plait held between her teeth while she tied a bit of bootlace round it to keep it firm. And looking up from her absorbing task, she saw Elmer sitting easily in the saddle with his hat pushed back and his left hand idle on the bridle reins, staring up at her window, at her pink blouse, her half-don't-hair, her blouses.

"Miss Lovekin!" he called. "Come down, Miss Lovekin!" Gillian withdrew. "Go round what, Mr. Elmer?" "I said, 'Would they go round Miss Lovekin!'" Gillian did not know whether to laugh or to blush or to pretend she didn't understand him. She decided on all three.

"Oh, dear now, Mr. Elmer. How can I guess your riddle-me-ree?" "Shall I tell you the answer?" "Oh, no!" "Shall I show you the answer?" "I'm agoin' in, Mr. Elmer."

"You've no call to come in, seeing father's at Weeping Cross." "And long may he live. Is he going again next week?" "He's going to Mid-Lent Fair, Friday's week. He's going to bring down a Simmel cake."

"Or what, Mr. Elmer? You are Mr. Elmer, I suppose?" "Gillian's face looked out roughly. "Or shall I come and fetch you?" Gillian laughed uproariously. "This was really amusing."

"Oh, dear now, Mr. Elmer, you are a caution!" "Are you coming down?" said Elmer softly. "Gillian decided to go down. She put on her best hat."

"Well, Mr. Elmer, pleased to meet you, I'm sure," said she, standing under the green archway by the wicket. "But why didn't you come yesterday when you went by like a storm of thunder?"

"Because if I had, I couldn't have come and talked to you to-day. So you saw me?" "Ah, I saw you." "Where were you?" "In the garden."

"Do they put you there when you're naughty?" "This came so near the truth that Gillian was on her dignity in a moment. She was angry, not with Elmer, but with Robert.

"I'm not a child, Mr. Elmer." "What are you, then?" "A grown-up lady."

"My First Public Speech"

As it turned out, my first speech of a public nature was no speech at all," says Alderman William T. Straith. "In the spring of 1915, I was attending university in Winnipeg, and was elected as the president of the student body for the following year. It was the custom for a large student body meeting to be held when the retiring president presented to the newly elected president the gold-headed cane, which was emblematic of the office."

"It was below zero weather, and the week before the meeting was held, I completely lost my voice through laryngitis. Being determined to make an impression at this student meeting, I stayed at home for the entire week and nursed my throat by means of red flannel bandages, inhalations and gargling, until on the day of the meeting my voice had returned. In the meantime I had plenty of time to write and memorize what I considered a very impressive speech; and attended the meeting with the utmost confidence."

"I was ushered to the platform with the retiring president, who made a beautiful speech, but when my turn came to speak the heat of the room and my own nervousness brought on a complete collapse of my larynx, and my voice completely left me. I did not realize this fact until I attempted to speak. My speech was just one squeak and a whispered apology, after which I decided that I should retire from the platform; so that on the occasion of my first speech 'words failed me.'"

Uncle Wiggily hopped away. He was gone some little time and when he came back he opened the dining-room door, where the Longtail and Nurse Jane were working, and said:

"Now don't worry! I have the lace curtains and I'll hang them at parlor windows for you. I can do it."

"How good he is," said Nurse Jane, wiping some dust off her nose.

"I can't help it," agreed Mrs. Longears. "I only hope he gets them straight!"

There was so much to do about getting the bungalow clean after Thanksgiving that neither Nurse Jane nor Mrs. Longears had a chance to go look in the parlor at the lace curtains.

Uncle Wiggily bought and hung up the lace curtains, and then he came to the Longtail family and said:

"The lace curtains are all right, and just as the bell rang, giving notice that the Longtail family had arrived, Mrs. Longears took a peep in at the new curtains."

"They look nice," she murmured.

"Wiggily has good taste," she said. "In came Jolie and Jolie Longtail, the niece boy and girl, with Squeakie Eakie, the cousin mouse, and Mr. and Mrs. Longtail. Mrs. Longears showed them the lace curtains. But no sooner had the family of mice looked at the new lace curtains than they squeaked and squealed and began nibbling at them until they had eaten them all up."

"Oh, Oh!" gasped Mrs. Longears. "What's the idea eating my new lace curtains?"

It did seem a queer thing to do but there was a good reason for it, as you shall soon hear. For if the milkman will give the fiddle a bottle of cream to freeze for the sponge cake supper, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's discovery.

BROADCAST HEADLINERS

An interesting line-up of features is in store for listeners to CPCT from 8 o'clock onward this evening. The first fifteen minutes will be devoted to popular music, following which the nightly "Sunset Hour" of fine music will be enjoyed by lovers of the classics. This programme will precede a fifteen-minute offering of light music, and then radio listeners will have the opportunity of hearing an address by Sydney Pickles, A.P.R.A.S. Mr. Pickles has chosen to speak on "Aircraft Transportation and What It Means to Victoria." At 7.45 o'clock to-night James McGrath, tenor, will be presented from the main studio of CPCT, offering a group of military songs. Exactly at 8 o'clock radio devotees will again have the pleasure of hearing "Elias and Wong," the famous Negro-Chinese comedy team that is so intensely popular with the unseen audience. Following this fifteen-minute episode, and commencing at 8.15 o'clock, the regular weekly concert will be presented from the main studio by the band of the 5th B.C. Coast Brigade, C.A. This band is heard each Friday evening under the baton of Bandmaster Charles Baine. CPCT's last programme for this evening will commence at 11 o'clock, when the scene of action will be the south ballroom of the Crystal Garden. At this time Charlie Hunt and his Victrola will be heard in a full six minutes of syncopation, and then Victoria's radio station will sign off soon after the zero hour of midnight.

What Does a Girl Owe Her Employer?

A YOUNG woman wants to know what an employer has a right to expect of his secretary in the way of personal appearance, dress, manners, efficiency, punctuality and health.

What an employer has the right to expect of a secretary is a matter of individual taste. Some gentlemen prefer blondes, and the younger they are the better, and the flatter they are the more sure they are of getting a job. Other men are not interested in a girl's complexion, but only in her efficiency, and it is more important to them that a secretary should be easy on their tempers than easy on their eyes.

Every employer, however, has the right to expect that his secretary shall be neat and clean and well groomed and especially that she shall smell of soap and water and not cheap perfume. No man wants to spend his days looking at a girl who looks as if she needed to be run through a steam laundry, or in an office that reeks with scent like a drug store. Many a girl loses her job because she doesn't shampoo her hair often enough, or because she wears soiled collars, or because she is a perfume addict.

An employer has the right to expect his secretary to be dressed like a business woman going to work, and not like a society debutante going to a party. She may be as smart as she likes and as her purse affords, but she must be suitable in mind. Bare backs and naked arms look just as silly and frivolous in an office as would swallow-tail coats and white ties and patent-leather pumps on men. So do rings and jingling chains and bracelets and tons of costume jewelry.

Not long ago a man I know fired an exceedingly competent secretary because she was always so overdressed that every man who came into the office gave him a sly nudge and asked: "Who is your little queen?" "That didn't do me any good with the men whose business I want," he said, "and I simply didn't have the nerve to tell her to lay off the finery and get her some plain, sensible clothes, so I let her go."

And every employer has a right to expect that his secretary will arrange her collure and put on her complexion according to her taste and requirements before she comes to work, and that she will not be combing her hair all over the place and powdering her nose and making up her mouth every fifteen minutes during working hours.

Every employer has a right to expect that his secretary shall have good manners, and that she will be pleasant and agreeable to deal with and treat him with courtesy and consideration. He has a right to expect her to park her temper at home, and not bring it with her to work. For a busy man has no time to deal with an employee who has to be handled with gloves and around whose peculiarities he has to gum-shoe. He gets enough of that sort of thing with customers and clients, the people he has to please in order to succeed.

Therefore, he has a right to expect that his secretary will use some common sense in dealing with the situation and realize that when he corrects a mistake she has made he is not offering her a personal insult, and that when he speaks impatiently to her it is not because he doesn't regard her as a perfect lady, but because his nerves are shot to pieces with business worries. The etiquette of the business office eliminates grouches and fears and snappy comebacks and spreading one's feelings all over the place. They are simply the things that are not done.

Naturally, every employer has a right to expect efficiency from his secretary and he generally gets it, or she gets another job. Once in a blue moon a girl gets away with sex appeal, and makes good looks a substitute for good work, but that happens so rarely that it is not worth considering in the technique of a private secretary.

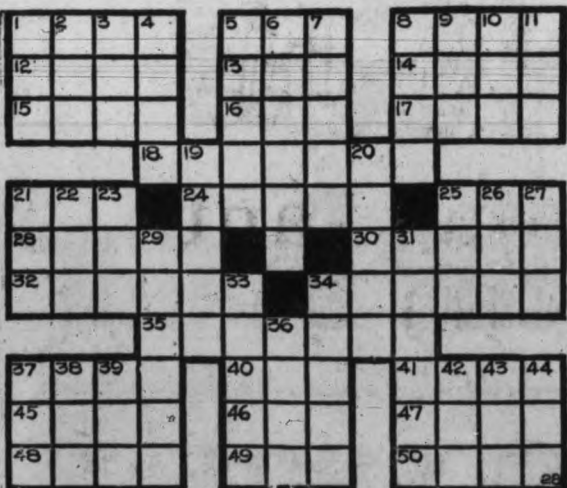

Most men do their love-making out of business hours and the girls who as a general thing get advances and bonuses in their pay envelopes are not those who roll their eyes at their bosses, but those who are painstaking and accurate; who are interested in their jobs and in trying to improve their work and who never leave of an evening until their desks are cleared up. It is the secretaries who are their employers' memory and filing system and who can lay their hands on any paper in the dark and who never make mistakes, who become indispensable, not the little flirty-gibbly who are always angling for dates.

An employer has a right to expect health of his secretary, because her absence from her desk disrupts the whole system of business. Of course, there are illnesses that are unavoidable and secretaries, no more than any one else, are immune from the ills of the flesh. But no girl has a right deliberately to make herself sick by wearing paper-soled slippers in winter because she thinks her feet look smaller than they do in galoshes, or by going without her lunches and getting sick headaches because she wants to put the money she has saved on food on her back, or by courting pneumonia by going without a wrap because her old coat isn't the latest style, or by coming to work in the morning half dead with fatigue and dull and sodden for want of sleep because she has been out all night on a wild party.

These are some of the things an employer has a right to expect of his secretary, but her duties do not include kissing him good morning, or listening to his tales of woe about being misunderstood by his wife, or going on joyrides with him, or letting him make love to her.

A terrific plot punch is the feature of "Bright Lights," the first National's all-Technicolor film "special" at the Capitol Theatre, where it is running before capacity audiences.

Dorothy Mackail and Frank Fay head the cast in romantic role she as a New York revue star, who has come up from lowest African dives, he as her "barker" throughout all her career, and now a high-class master of ceremonies.

In a novel manner, the girl's past life is shown as she lies to reporters about her career. Its thrills and exotic color mingle with the tense dramatic moments when she decides to leave her partner at last, and wed a rich man's son.

Rumpley Pearson, author of "On With the Show," wrote "Bright Lights" especially for motion pictures.

GIVES FRECKLES CREDIT FOR HIS SCREEN SUCCESS

Each of Hollywood's film favorites has his own pet theory about what caused his success. Jack Oakie, recently elevated to stardom by Paramount, gives the credit to his freckles.

"If it had not been for my freckles I probably would be still working around some office in New York," says this modest young actor, whose second starring picture, "The Sap from Syracuse," will feature the Columbia big to-day. "They made me what I am to-day and I hope they're satisfied."

AMOS 'N' ANDY TO HAVE PREMIERE HERE TO-MORROW

Contrary to the usual conception of Amos 'n' Andy dialogue, familiar to millions of people in the English-speaking world, the greatest stars have two distinct dialects which they combine in their radio skits.

It is particularly noticeable in their first all-talking picture, "Check and Double Check," produced by Radio Pictures and to be shown at the Dominion Theatre starting to-morrow.

The Amos 'n' Andy skits are a variant charm of negro dialect. It is a character dialect of a very definite nature, and most of the words were invented by the famous comedians. Their use is the key by which countless millions of people have been able to obtain by radio alone a clear picture of these famous masters of entertainment.

Some of these coined words are used by both Amos 'n' Andy. Others are used by only one of them. It is Andy, for instance, who recklessly invents and mingles big words—the bigger the better. That puts over the idea of his braggart, amusingly aggressive nature. There are other words that only the Kingfish uses.

FRANK MORGAN IS PLAYING OPPOSITE STAR AT DOMINION

Frank Morgan is a great admirer of Nancy Carroll, but he doesn't show it in the production in which they have principal roles, "Laughter," at the Dominion Theatre for the last time to-day.

The reason why Morgan seems to be at odds with Nancy all the time, is, of course, merely a plot-requirement reason. He is the elderly broker whom she "allows" to marry her, a gay-spirited young ex-Pollie girl. She respects Morgan, but his frequent misunderstandings of her blithesome escapades bring the wrath of his bitter voice against her—so that finally he deserts her.

But Frederic March supplies whatever of friendliness and romance is required in the picture, and those who see it all will agree that it is a tense, gripping picture out of life, topped with the clever emotional acting of this adept trio.

TWO COMEDIENNES GET LAUGHS FROM LOCAL AUDIENCES

Known throughout the entertainment world as the "finest feminine team of comediennes," Marie Dressler and Polly Moran are getting plenty of laughs out of the late-lamented stock market crash in the uproarious "Caught Short," which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is presenting at the Playhouse Theatre to-day. Frank Resser directed and the cast includes Anita Page, Charles Morton, T. Roy Barnes, Edward Dillon, Herbert Prior and Nancy Price.

"TONS OF MONEY" IS PROVING POPULAR AT THE ROYAL VICTORIA

Seldom has a play been seen at the Royal Victoria Theatre which has caught the popular fancy such as "Tons of Money" has done this week. It is not only an absurdly funny farce but it is so well acted that it is a sheer delight to see the various artists enacting their roles. All troubles are forgotten and the audiences get a few hours of real gaiety in watching the troubles that "Tons of Money" may bring. There are only three more performances of this brilliant farce.

Next week patrons will be offered a thrilling drama entitled "The Silent House." In great contrast to this week's play, it will be a play of intense moments, and exciting episodes.

"LOOSE ENDS" SHOWS LONDON IN ALL ITS COLORFUL ASPECTS

"Loose Ends," now at the Coliseum Theatre, is almost fiercely dramatic and it portrays London, as never properly portrayed before, in its every aspect. It ranges from society life to the cry of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, where the dregs of humanity congregate at night, and it takes in underground scenes, and Piccadilly scenes, and dockyard scenes.

In short, "Loose Ends" is a British picture. And Norman Walker is the man who deserves his luck in presenting it to the public. Because he refrains from "pugilism" (a better word than "temperament") he is one of the best-loved men at Elstree.

"TURKEY" WAS BEEF

Chicago, Nov. 28.—The "turkey" for 5,000 unemployed who thronged Al Capone's free lunch room in downtown Chicago yesterday turned out to be beef stew instead. The Examiner said a traditional Thanksgiving meal had been planned until somebody stole 1,000 turkeys from a truck Wednesday. The birds were not destined for Capone. He had his own, but feared somebody might draw conclusions and changed the menu.

Famous Holy Land Model Stands Supreme In the Realm of Enter- tainment

Ganci Brothers' Holy Land model is indeed the cause of much comment, and one can hear such whisperings as "simply wonderful" one of the wonders of the world, and many other exaltations. Indeed this work must have taken many years of patience for its accomplishment.

After eleven years of study, research of history in connection with the earthly experiences of the Master, Ganci Brothers have caused water to flow through a new River Jordan and beautiful Galilee with its plant life, trees and vegetation is so real that one will imagine he or she is actually in that land climbing the mountains, crossing valleys, traveling the highways and treading the very ground trodden by the feet of that Great Personage who appeared 1,930 years ago. Ganci Brothers have treated their subject with the most accurate and appreciation for the famous incidents.

We cannot all go to the Holy Land, but if we visit the old Christ Church Cathedral you will feel that it is the next thing to it.

This Holy Land model has 780 moving figures and is beautifully illuminated.

B.C. APPEAL COURT RULES OUT ORDER AGAINST BROKERS

Supreme Court Judges Overruled on Solloway, Mills Appeal

Vancouver, Nov. 28.—Four orders made on the application of claimants for $269,000, which required Solloway, Mills and Co. Ltd., stockbrokers, to produce for inspection in Toronto books, documents, and other papers relating to the claims, have been set aside by the Court of Appeal.

On the appeal of Solloway, Mills and Co. Ltd., which was represented by W. B. Farris, K.C., as counsel, the court unanimously decided that the orders should not have been made, for the reason that they infringed the rules of the Supreme Court.

The orders had been made in two sections. In one, the trustee of the estate of Theo Frontier and Co. Ltd., late of Kamloops, and now in bankruptcy, claims $252,000, and in the other William H. MacKee claims $7,000.

SUPREME COURT ORDERS

Mr. Justice Gregory, on October 31, ordered L. L. Mason, officer of defendant company, to attend for examination at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, and, in addition, his lordship directed that Solloway, Mills and Co. Ltd. should produce documents relating to the claims five days before the examination. This was followed up by an order of Mr. Justice Fisher on November 7, requiring production of the documents with the alternative penalty that defendants' statements of defence would be struck out, production was directed by the various orders on dates preceding Mason's examination.

The Court of Appeal decided that there was no provision in the Rules of Practice for such an order under the circumstances of the case.

MASSON LEAVES PROVINCE
Mason did not attend for examination on the date which had been set, and the explanation was that he had departed to the United States before he was informed of the order.

G. L. Fraser visited Toronto for the purpose of examining the documents and also questioning Mason, he returned without having been able to accomplish either objective.

Applications are pending in Supreme Court to have the defence of Solloway, Mills and Co. Ltd., struck out for failure to comply with the orders of Mr. Justice Gregory and of Mr. Justice Fisher.

PRICE FIXING GRAIN BOARD IS ADVOCATED

Prairie Farm Delegates Discuss Proposals at Secret Session in Saskatoon

Saskatoon, Sask. Nov. 28.—Envoys of prairie farmers deliberated behind barred doors here to-day on details of a Government price fixing board proposed as a means of alleviating the agrarian crisis of low grain prices. Yesterday an interprovincial conference unanimously asked for Government stabilization of prices on a production cost basis.

Definite statement on price-fixing policy was expected to-day from the prairie delegates, engaged in a purely western conference following the departure yesterday evening of delegates from the United Farmers of Ontario and the Canadian Council of Agriculture, joining in the prairie session were represented the United Farmers of Manitoba and Alberta and the United Farmers of Canada, Saskatchewan section—three bodies boasting a total membership of some 40,000 farmers.

On the matter of a fixed price for wheat—at least temporarily—the three organization's delegates were considered agreed at $1 a bushel at shipping points for No. 1 Northern. The Alberta and Saskatchewan units had taken an official stand, while W. J. Ward, president of the Manitoba body, had expressed himself in favor of that figure.

100 PER CENT POOL

One hundred per cent pooling of wheat, rated as one of the outstanding topics of the conference, was slated for this afternoon session, with the farmer delegates meeting representatives of the Manitoba and Saskatchewan wheat pools. Alberta pool men, engaged in a provincial convention, did not attend. The Saskatchewan U.F.C. is in favor of the "perfect pool" and Manitoba plans a ballot on the question, Alberta's position not having been defined.

Government stabilization, as backed by the conference yesterday, was not proposed to be limited to agricultural goods. The approved resolution suggests a general investigation to decide the relation between costs of agricultural production and costs of other goods and services, and price pegging on the basis of the ratio. A Federal Government "bureau of standards" was urged to aid in the price inquiry.

"A price fixing board of some nature" was involved in the price stabilization proposal, according to H. E. G. Scholte, field, Alberta delegate, who advanced the plan. He mentioned the conference had not looked into the details of the matter and that its make-up would be left in the hands of the Federal Government. Further details, however, might be evolved at to-day's sessions, he added.

HEAD OF BANK WHICH FAILED ENDS HIS LIFE

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 28.—The body of R. E. Donnell, sixty-three, president of the closed Liberty Bank and Trust Company, an institution he organized, was found in a hotel room here early to-day.

Search for Mr. Donnell had been made for several hours before it was learned he had registered at the hotel. Repeated telephone calls to the room went unanswered, and the door was opened. M. D. Johnson, assistant cashier of the bank, identified the body.

An envelope on which was written to "Ridley E. Donnell, from Daddy," and containing his watch and chain, was found in his vest pocket. The face from his left shoe had been removed and tied around his neck over a handkerchief. Police said Mr. Donnell had committed suicide and no inquest was necessary.
